Homecoming Queen Debbie Quinowski, Princesses Robin Warcken, Keven Dehlinger, Janet Williams, Sandy Vanderhoff.

Homecoming Spirit Runs Through Week

Below: The bonfire, sponsored by the Lettermen, was held thursday evening.

The annual homecoming activities were centered around the the theme of "Lance a Lot of Lancers". This theme was carried through in class competitions of sign day, won by the seniors; class color day, won by the freshmen; ribbon day, won by the sophomores who also showed enough spirit at the pep assembly to be awarded the spirit stick; and mourning day, won by the juniors who also had the best hall decorations. Excitement raged at the bonfire and the float competition was won by the seniors. Debbie Quinowski was crowned queen during the halftime activities. All These People from San Francisco helped to make the homecoming dance a big success. Even though the game was lost, homecoming was fun.

Right: The seniors won the float competition.

Henley Participates

Henley was well represented by Princess Megan Creswell in the Merrill Potato Festival. Megan's talent entry was a vocal solo, "Sin to Amor."

Henley's rally, marching band, dance team, pep club, and majorettes marched in the parade with the majorettes, dance team, and marching band placing first.

Jerri Wedam, varsity rally queen, waves at her fans as she passes by.

Pageant Entered

Three senior girls entered the Klamath Falls Junior Miss Pageant. Nancy Brown, Robin Warcken, and Vickie Biggs were judged on talent, physical fitness, scholarship, and personality. Nancy was named first runner-up.

Prom Considered A Success

"Just an Old-Fashioned Love Song" was this year's theme for the junior prom. Starting off the event, a dinner was held at the Cimarron Restaurant. Following this, a formal dance was held in the Henley Junior High School Gym. The band for the evening was a group called "Sunflower". Megan Creswell was crowned queen during the dance. The activities ended with a movie CAT BALLOU shown at the Underground Theater. The evening was considered a "SMASH!"

Juniors Choose Court

Queen of the 1973 prom was Megan Creswell. The prom court is chosen by the members of the junior class prom committee. The queen is then chosen by the couples attending the prom. Congratulations, Megan.

Right: Queen Megan Creswell was escorted by Vince Mazzier. Below: The royal court consisted of Vickie Baker and John Jarschke; Debbie Quinowski and Brent Kerns; Queen Megan Creswell and Vince Mazzier; Janet Williams and Sunner Crume; and Robin Warcken and Jim Stone.

Dan Denver Emcees Talent Show

Dan Denver, KAGO disc jockey, served as master of ceremonies for the annual music department's talent show. The talent ranged from individual performances such as Mike Chambers at the organ and Bill Cogley giving a humorous reading, to groups like the pep band and dance team.

Mike Chambers plays a lively number on the organ.

Dance Sponsored by Pep Club

The annual Sweethearts' Ball, sponsored by the Pep Club, was held at the Kingsley Field Service Club. This yearly event honored the basketball teams and at this time Mr. and Miss Rebound were crowned. Candidates were selected from the Pep Club and basketball teams. This year's candidates were Lynn Sine and Tom Noble, seniors; Gail Hildreth and Bill Poch, juniors; Dacota Rushing and Jerry Walsh, sophomores; and Shelley Rushing and Jeff Gansberg, freshmen. Tom Noble and Gail Hildreth received the honors. Theme for the dance was "Moonlight and Roses."

CSP Continues On

For over thirty students, the CSP program proved to be a memorable experience. CSP, Community Service Project, can be taken by seniors as a three credit project. These students learned what it means to be active and concerned members of a society. They became involved in their agencies and proved to be a real asset to the community. The knowledge and experience gained will hopefully be useful in their future lives.

Girls' League Present Style Show

One of the major functions of the Girls' League was the Christmas Style Show held at the Cimarron Restaurant. The clothes modeled were of the very latest fashion from Jo-Pattini, Jody's and Bistrins. The shoes were from House of Shoes and Brook's Bogatay Shoes. Several of the girls had their hair done, compliments of Your Beauty Shop. Proceeds from this annual event went to the drama department to help buy a spotlight. Narrators for the show were Gail Hildreth, Denise Hill, and Sandy Vanderhoff. Intermission entertainment was furnished by THE SMALL ENSEMBLE.

Athletes Recognized

Each spring Henley athletes are recognized during an all school assembly. At this time coaches present letters, numerals, and certificates to those students who have earned enough points in any sport. Athletics plays an important role in the year's activities and this is one way the school can thank the students who give their time to the school.

Dress-Up Day Becomes Award Day

The last day for seniors is traditionally "Dress-up Day" for seniors. It is also the day the teachers honor students who have reached certain academic achievements. Club awards are also given at this time.

Top: A special thanks is given to Larry Sandwick for his work with seven men at the work activities center. Bottom: The Dance Team bids farewell to the senior members, Marty McClellan, Sandy Vanderhoff, Nancy Brown, Debbie Quinowski, and Keven Dehlinger.

Principal Works with Community

For the second year the team of Mr. Bill Lane and Mr. Jerry Johnson served as principal and vice-principal for Henley High School. Much of their time was spent in improving student control and planning activities for the school year. Along with working with the teachers, students, and community, Mr. Lane and Mr. Johnson spent many hours planning the move to the new building.

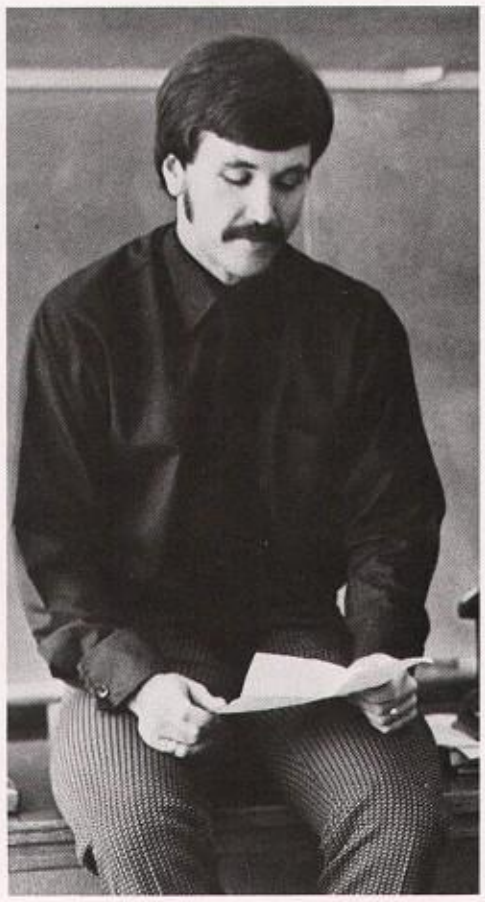
Top: Principal Bill Lane and Vice-principal Jerry Johnson catch the photographer sneaking in a shot. Bottom: Mr. Bill Lane and Mr. John Snodgrass work on setting a date for scheduling.

Secretaries Keep Busy

Mrs. Donalda DeVore returned to Henley High after two years' absence. During this time she worked at Mazama. Mrs. Betty High continued with her work as bookkeeper. Both secretaries were kept busy helping students and teachers.

Top: Mrs. Betty High checks the cafeteria receipts. Bottom left: Mr. Johnson must think this excuse is funny. Bottom right: Mrs. Donalda DeVore checks on the daily attendance.

Right: Robbin Viets listens attentively to Mrs. Margaret Heyden explain possible future schooling. Below: Mr. John Snodgrass tries to psychoanalyze a student by reading a note he was writing.



Counselors Advise Students

Beginning his second year of counseling Mr. John Snodgrass seems to be "getting the hang of things" around Henley. He and Mrs. Margaret Heyden have listened to many problems, advised students on next year's classes, and guided seniors as they neared graduation. This year a new method of registration was introduced with the counselors spending more time with the students. Arena scheduling seemed to be successful even if "all the good classes were offered fifth period." Also helpful in the scheduling were the X periods with the teachers explaining each class.

Music Department Grows

One of the fastest growing programs at Henley is the music department. Mr. Don Herbig directs the AC choir, the beginning choir, and the small ensemble. He also works with Mr. Jerry Martin on a music appreciation class. Mr. Martin is in charge of the band along with his grade school and junior high commitments.

Spanish Group Goes to Mexico

Mr. Jerry Gorsenger was new to the Henley staff this year but his department was one of the most active. These activities included going to Mexico over spring vacation and giving a Spanish play for the junior high.

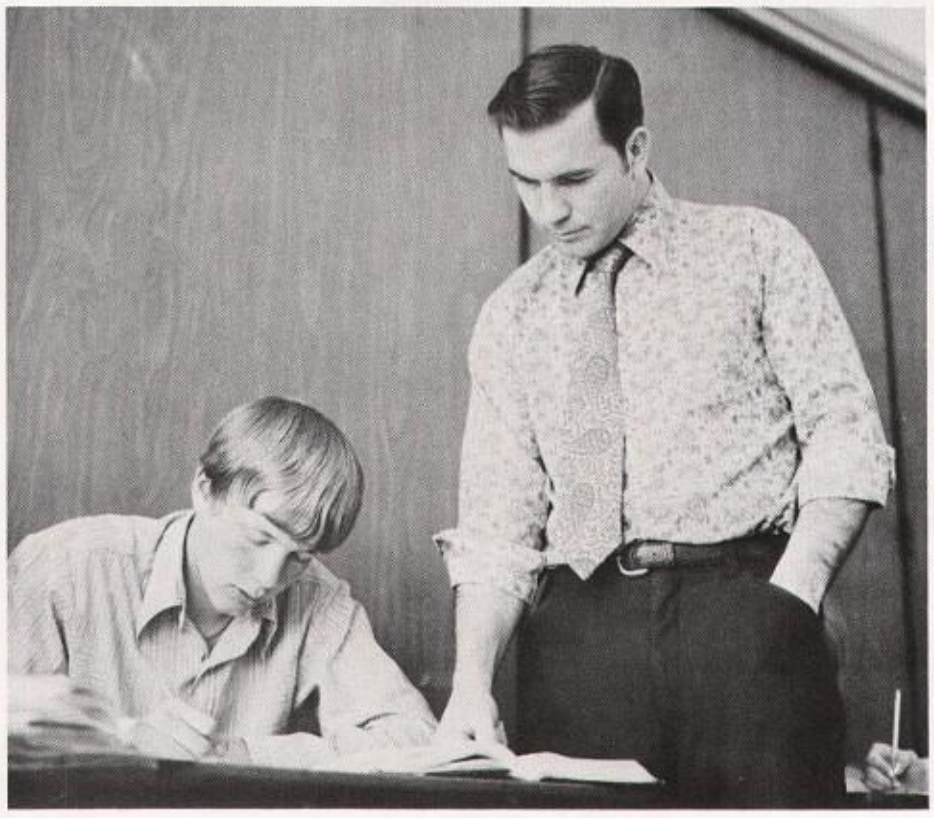
Computer Class Programed



The only new class taught in the math department was a computers class. Mr. Pearson made daily trips to O.T.I. to program his students work. It is because of this class that the school was able to offer arena scheduling this spring.

Social Studies Remain the Same

"The Social Studies Department seems to be the most stable," was a remark made by one of the seniors. By this she meant the teachers had remained the same for her entire four years. The classes had also remained the same but this is going to change. The department spent many hours working on curriculum changes and next year several semester courses will be offered.

Debbie Larson earns her modern problems credit by working with the Trainable Mentally Retarded.

Boys Learn to Cook and Sew

The home-ec department offered several semester courses this year. Of these the most revolutionary course for Henley was the addition of bachelor's home-ec. This class gave the guys a chance to learn the basics of cooking and sewing. Other new classes that proved popular were experimental foods and creative home arts. The first class dealt with foreign foods, holiday cooking and cooking with spices. The home arts class worked with needlework, quilting, and inexpensive ways to decorate a home.

"Have pan, will cook" is Don Stewart's theme in bachelor's home-ec.

Industrial Arts Courses Vary

A student interested in industrial arts can spend four years taking drawing courses and shop courses. Starting with Mechanical Drawing I as a freshman he can take architectural drawing as a senior. Along the same track he can move from Shop I through auto mechanics and wood or metal shop.

Above: Mike Lentz keeps the shop clean. Top: Mr. Lee Miles helps Jay McDonald find measurements for his house plans.

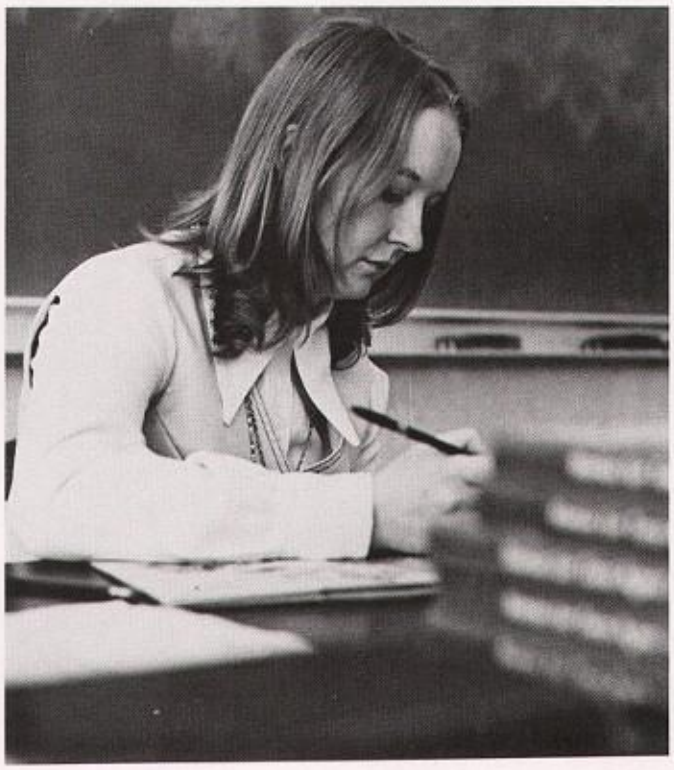
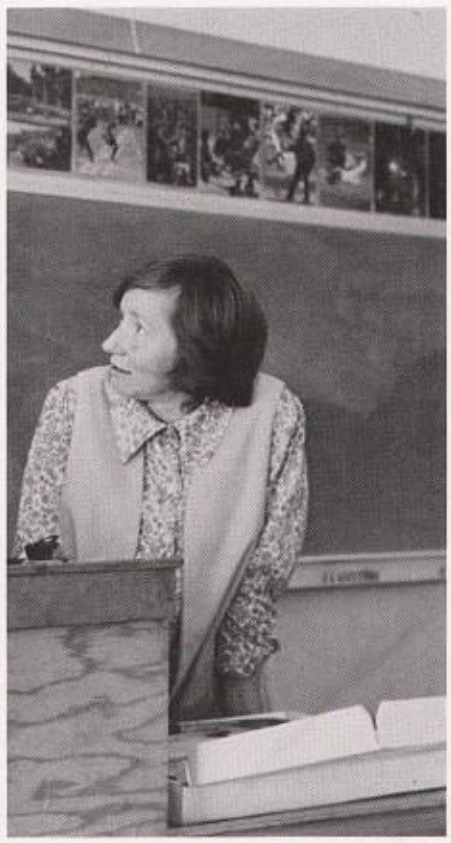
Mrs. Deanna Alexander grades papers for her children's literature class.

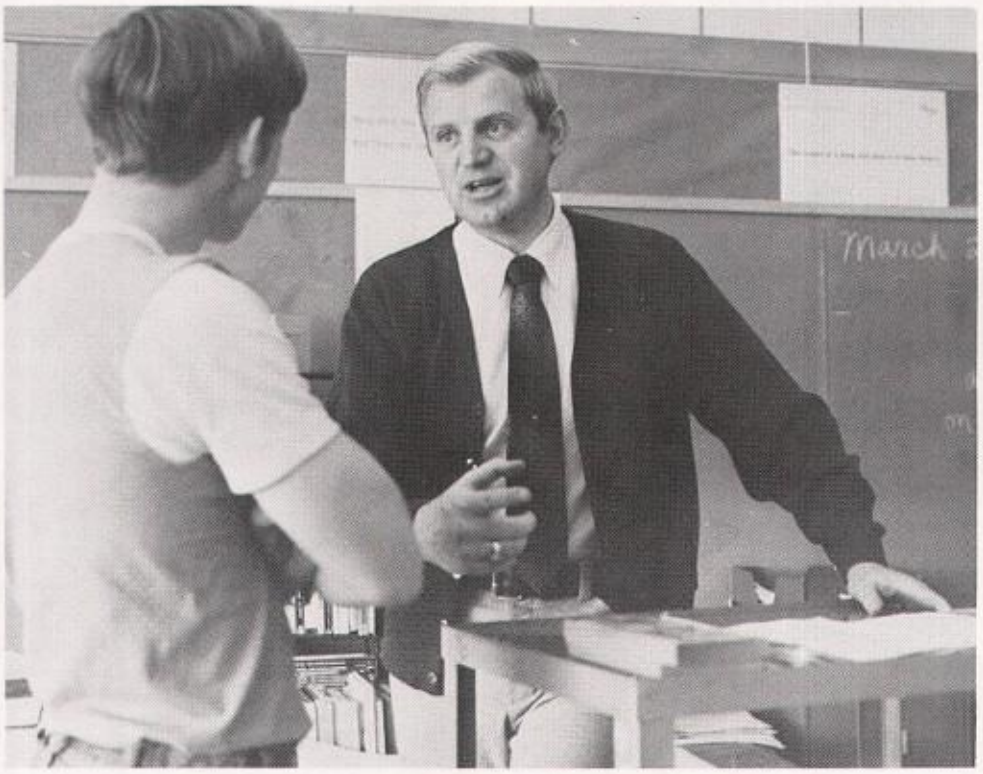


Miss Barbara Wittmer chuckles over the reaction of her students to their trip to see OTHELLO.



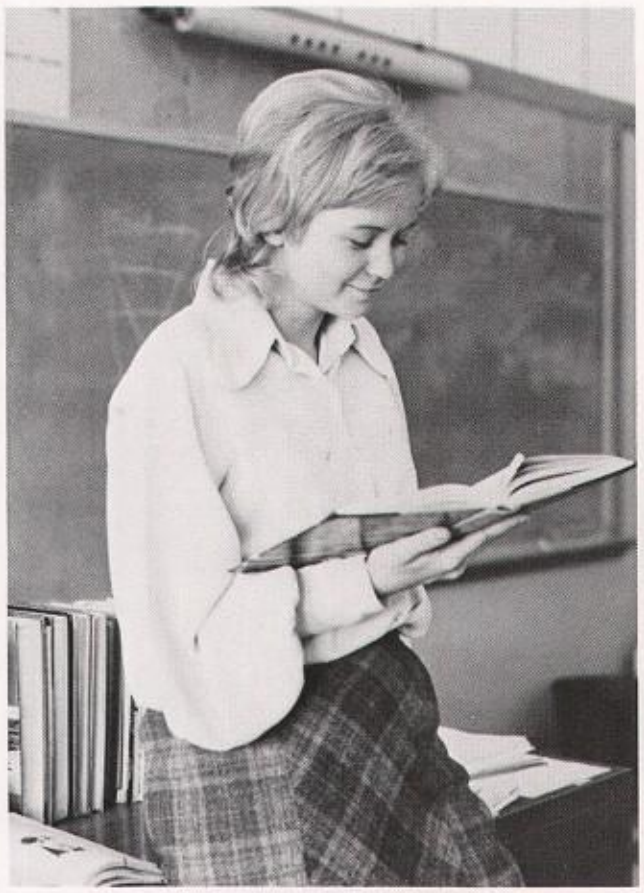
Mrs. Cleora Hampton decides it is time to take a vacation.

English Requirements Change



Classes in leisure reading, science fiction, mass media, journalism, children's literature, Ashland plays, and drama proved to be some of the more popular classes in the new semester English program. Freshmen take regular English with the upper three grades having a choice as long as they take two semesters of writing before graduation.

Mr. Roland Altenberg explains the difference between science fiction and the supernatrual to Mark Lucas.



Mrs. Nancy Freeman chuckles at a remark made by one of her freshman.

Library Reaches Capacity

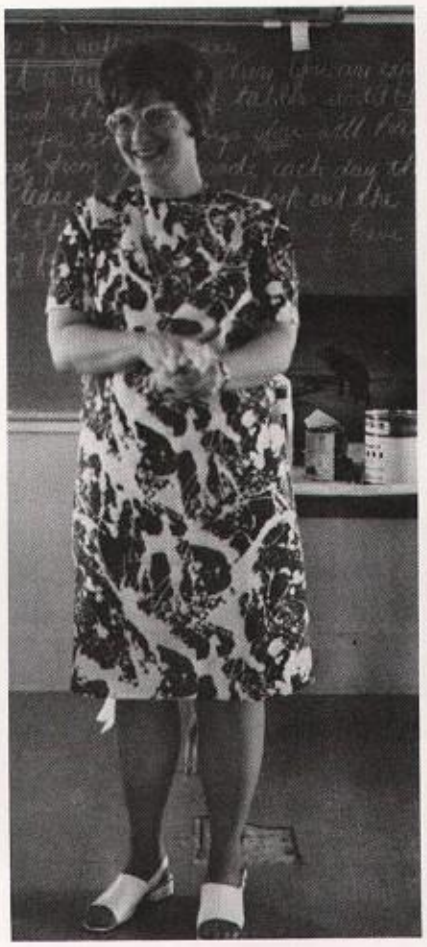
Trying to get more than one class into the library during any given class period was just one of the daily problems faced by Mr. Charles Funk in a library that had more than reached its capacity. Mr. Funk was the one teacher that did not have a prep period and must even spend his lunch hour working with the students. Assisting Mr. Funk with the added duties of taking care of all audio-visual equipment, ordering all films, and relieving Mrs. DeVore in the office, was Mrs. Ilene Ongman.

Opposite page: Top left: Mr. Charles Funk works on plans for the new library. Top right: Cory Yockey and Andy Harris work on projects for the spring art show. Bottom left: Mr. Tim Downey plans a tile mural. Bottom right: Mrs. Ruth Patton beams at the thought of a real art room..

Top: Mrs. Ilene Ongman checks book cards for lost books. Bottom: Ken Swanson, Tom Sudderth, Bob Carnes, and Tom Dendauw make good use of the library.

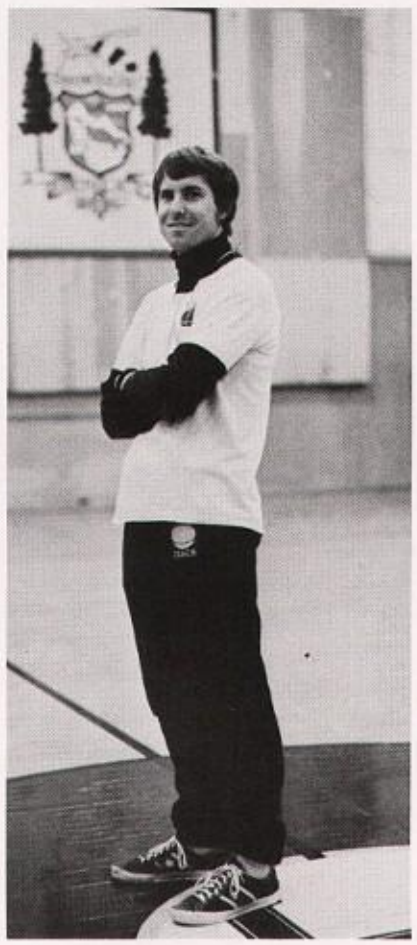
Art Show Held

The staff of the art department included Mrs. Ruth Patton and Mr. Tim Downey. A variety of classes were offered. An art show was held in connection with the spring music concert.



Future Secretaries Learn Skills

Mrs. Blohm is the only full time teacher of business subjects. However, she is assisted by Mrs. Patton and Mrs. Heyden. This year the business department and English department worked together to teach a course in business English. Other business courses taught are typing, shorthand, bookkeeping, and general business.



Above: Miss Norma Meinhardt is ready to start the next race. Right: Mr. John Riggs surveys his kingdom with pride.

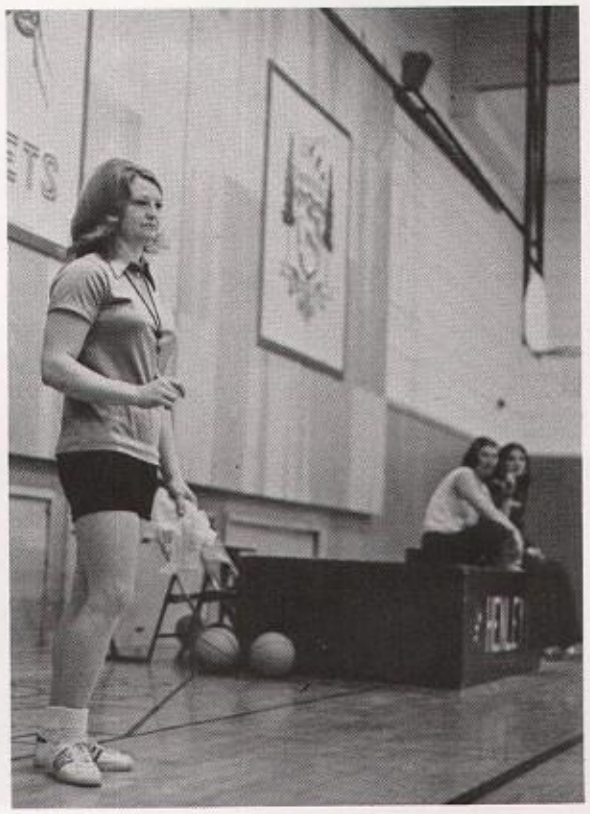
Below: Mr. Don Herbig helps get the trampoline ready.

Two years of P.E. is required for graduation. Because of limited facilities and personnel, this has been all that has been offered at Henley. This year advanced P.E. classes were offered to both boys and girls. Juniors and seniors took advantage of the opportunity to keep in shape and the classes are to be offered again next year.

Up, up, and away! Both boys and girls P.E. classes enjoy gymnastics.



Mrs. Diane Ongman did her student teaching in the P.E. department.

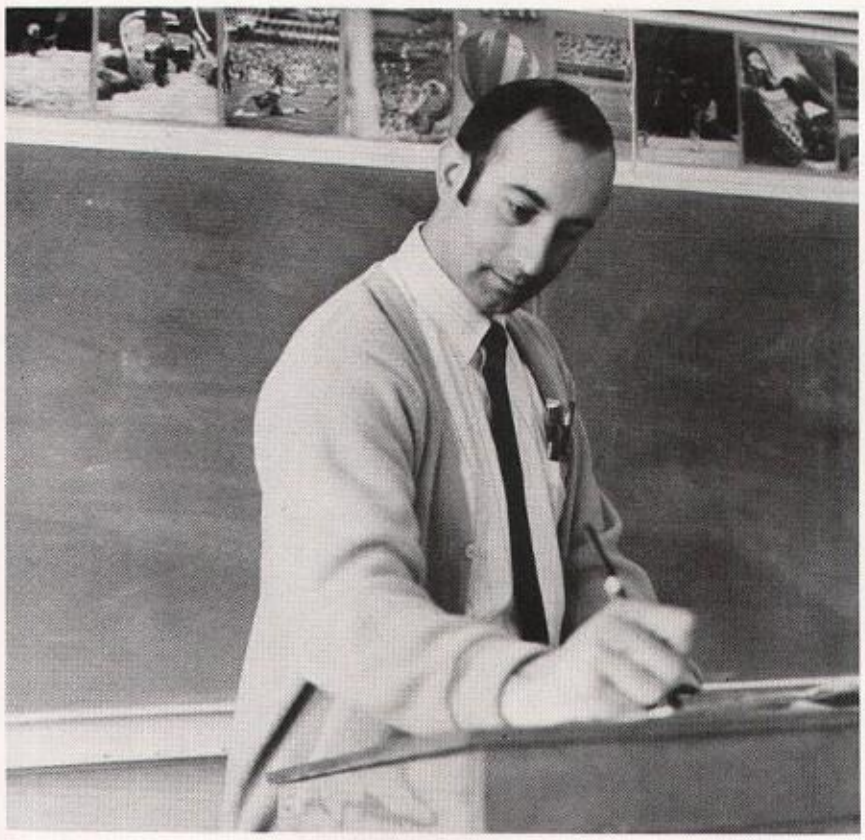
Scientists Trap Vertebrates

A co-ed overnight field trip? That was one of the challenges undertaken by the science department this year. The reason for this undertaking was a new class, vertebrates of Klamath County. Students made traps and tried to trap some vertebrates but were not too successful. The field trip was fun but wet and cold. It snowed.

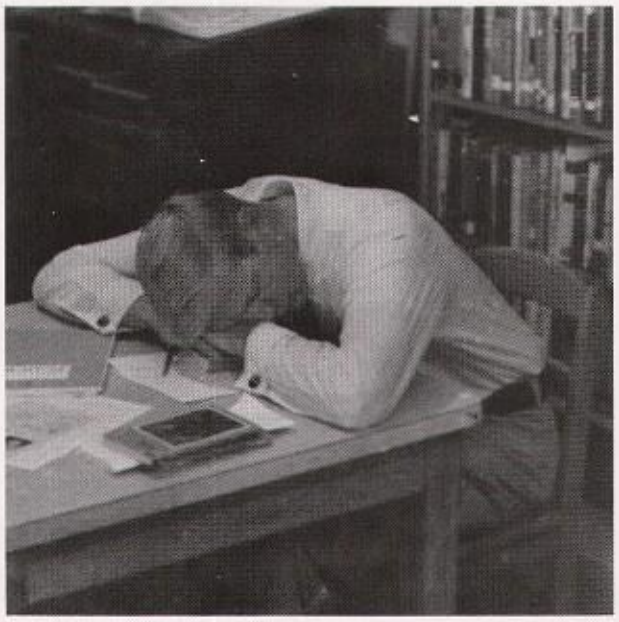


Top: Mr. John Godard tells his class about the overnight field trip. Left: Mr. Dan Andretta records grades from his latest earth science test.

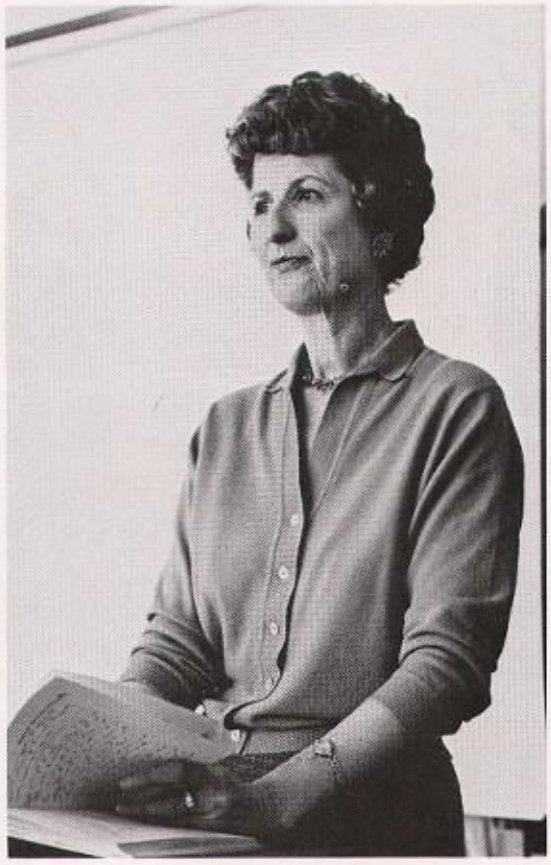
Did you ever wonder what teachers were really thinking? Just maybe. . . .

"If I have to listen to one more unprepared book report, I'll scream."

"And I could have been home watching SANFORD AND SON."



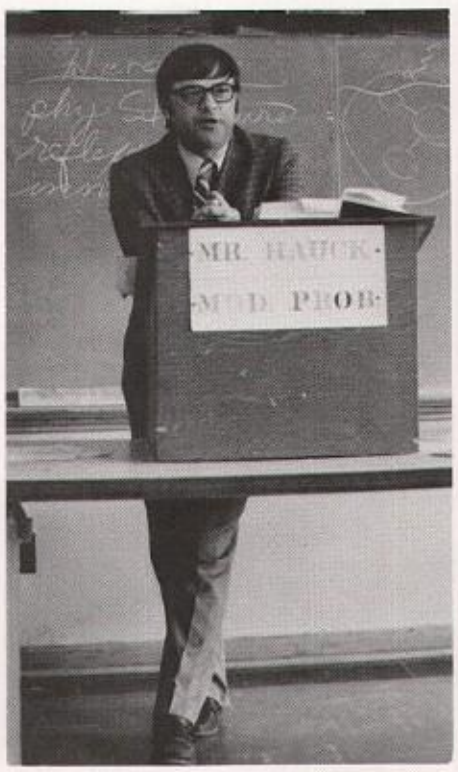
"It's called leisure reading, isn't it?"



"Clicking fingernails on the typewriter sets my teeth on edge."

Left: "Just how old was I on my last birthday?" Below: "No sweeter music this side of heaven."

"Where did I go wrong? 'He ain't did nothing.' I don't believe he said that."



"I've crossed everything I can hoping he graduates."

"Oh, Golly! Gee Whiz!"

Juniors Work on Prom

The main activity for any junior class is the planning and presenting of the prom. After choosing the theme "Just an Old-Fashioned Love Song," hours were spent finding a band, finding a location, setting a date, and above all, decorating. Money raising activities were all important and a TV was auctioned off at a home basketball game.

Freshmen Face Adjustments

To the freshmen the big experience was being part of the high school scene. Most of the year was spent getting adjusted to new situations and learning what it meant to be underclassmen. The rest of the year was spent thinking how nice it would be next year when they would be able to pick on someone.

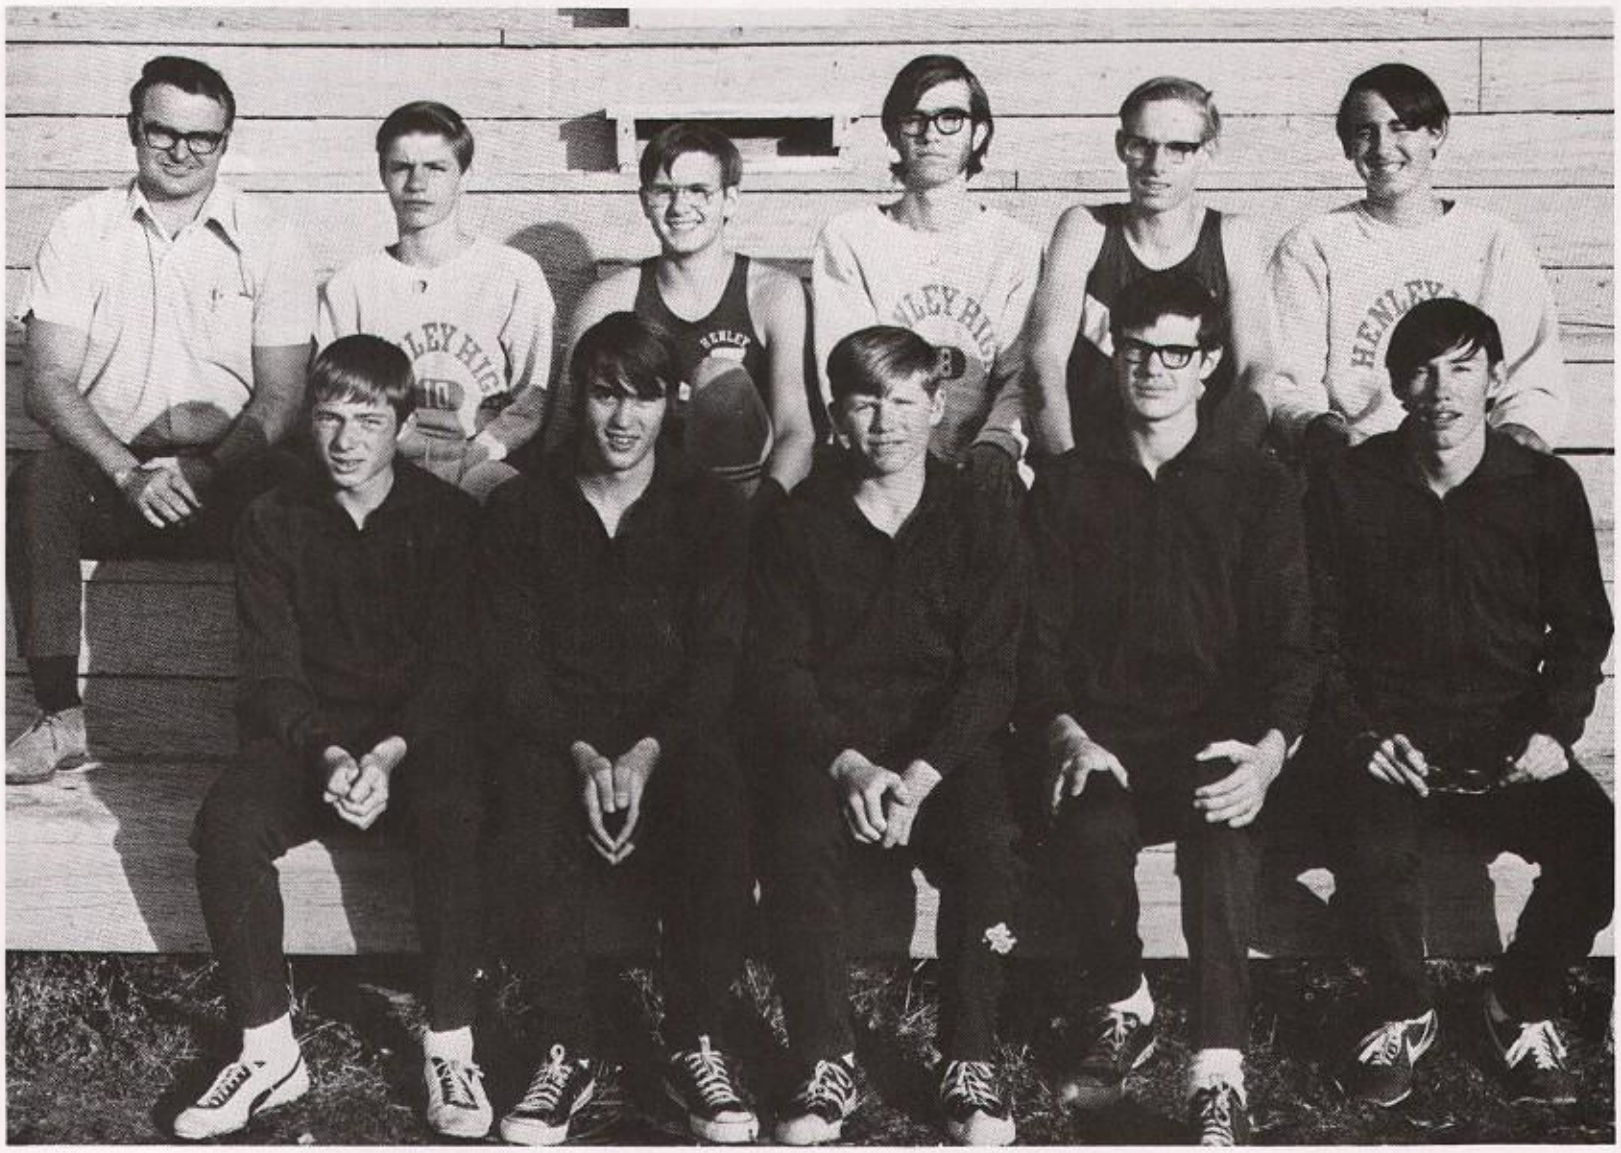
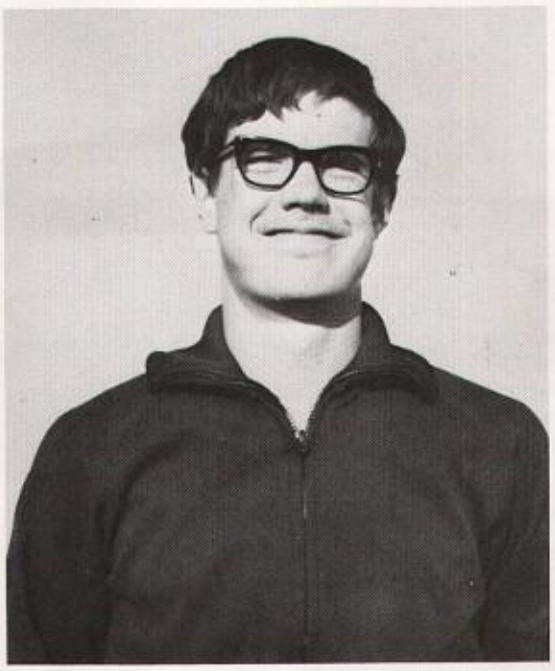
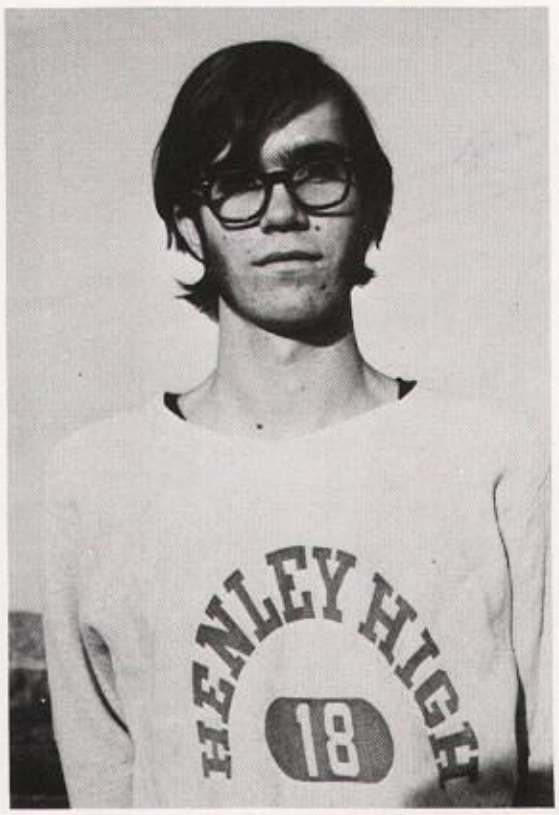
X Country Men Keep in Shape

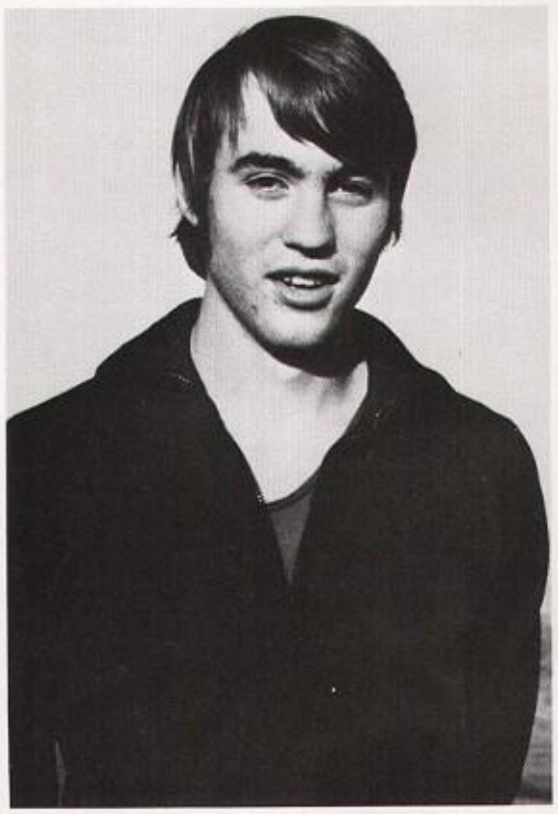
Lined up ready for take off are Larry Steele, Jim Henzel, Brent Cheyne, Richard Cooper, Don Abbott, and Mike Brown.



The 1972-73 Cross Country team was coached by Ken Hamacher. Seated next to the Coach are the members of the reserve team, Ian Harrod, Cary Snyder, John Segessor, Larry Steele, and Mike Bauer. The varsity team, seated in front, are Jim Henzel, Brent Cheyne, Mike Brown, Richard Cooper, and Don Abbott.







The cross-country team will lose just two seniors this year. They are John Segessor and Brent Cheyne. Two underclassmen who did very well are Jim Henzel and Richard Cooper.

Hornets Build Toward Future

Henley had a losing season in football this year but it was close and an exciting season. The league record was three wins and four losses. The season record was four wins and five losses. Despite discouraging weather, rain and cold, the enthusiasm remained and there was a good crowd for homecoming. The freshman team had a good season and with more and more action in the junior high, Henley should be on the upswing.

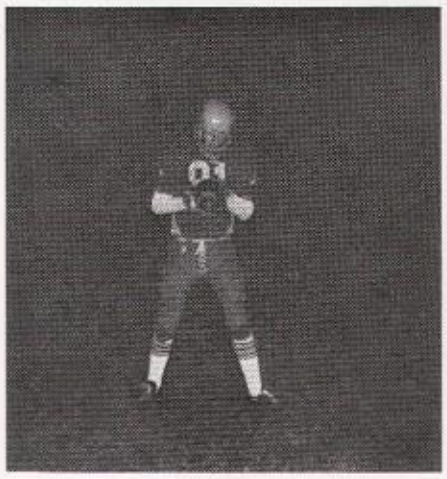
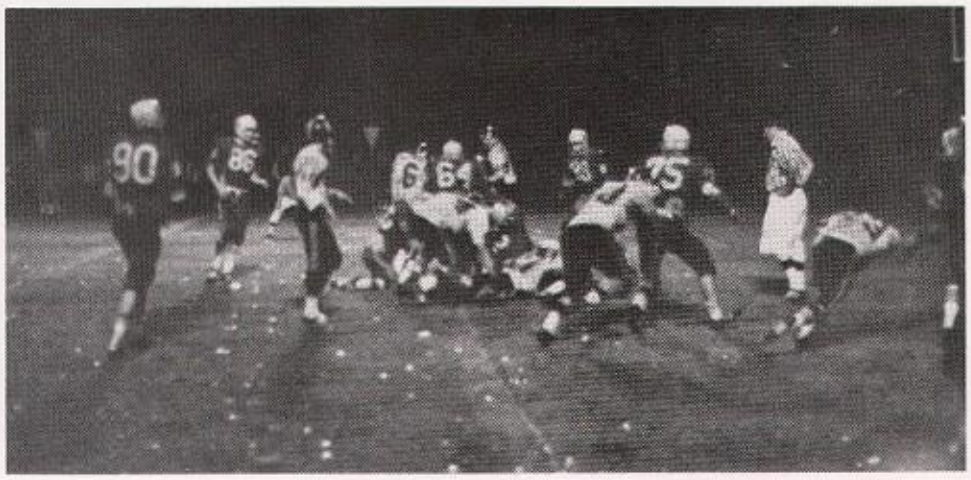
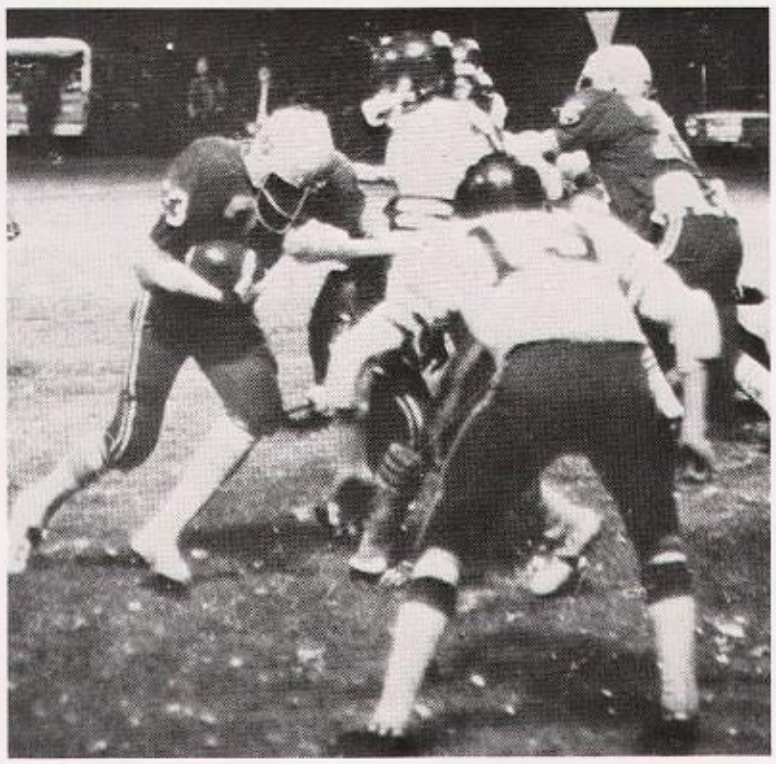
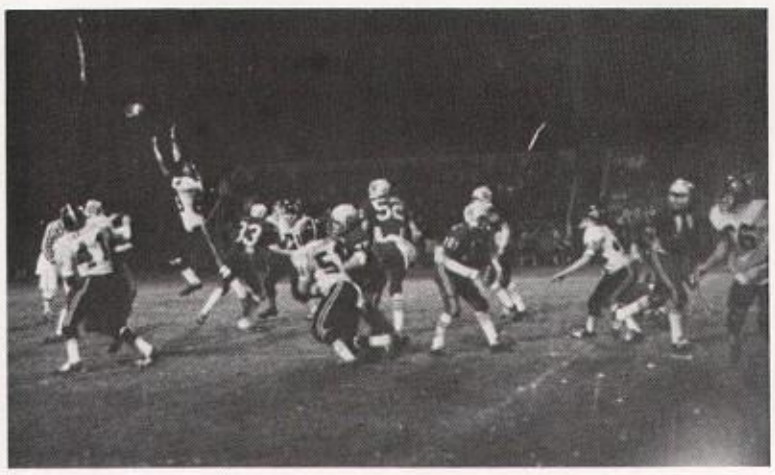
Football is a rough but fun sport. From the time of warm-up to the final whistle blows, concentration power is necessary.









The Hornets saw lots of action this year and once in awhile we came out on top.

Freshman Teams Have Good Year

The Henley Hornets prove that it is not "Pirate Country".

Hornets Take Skyline

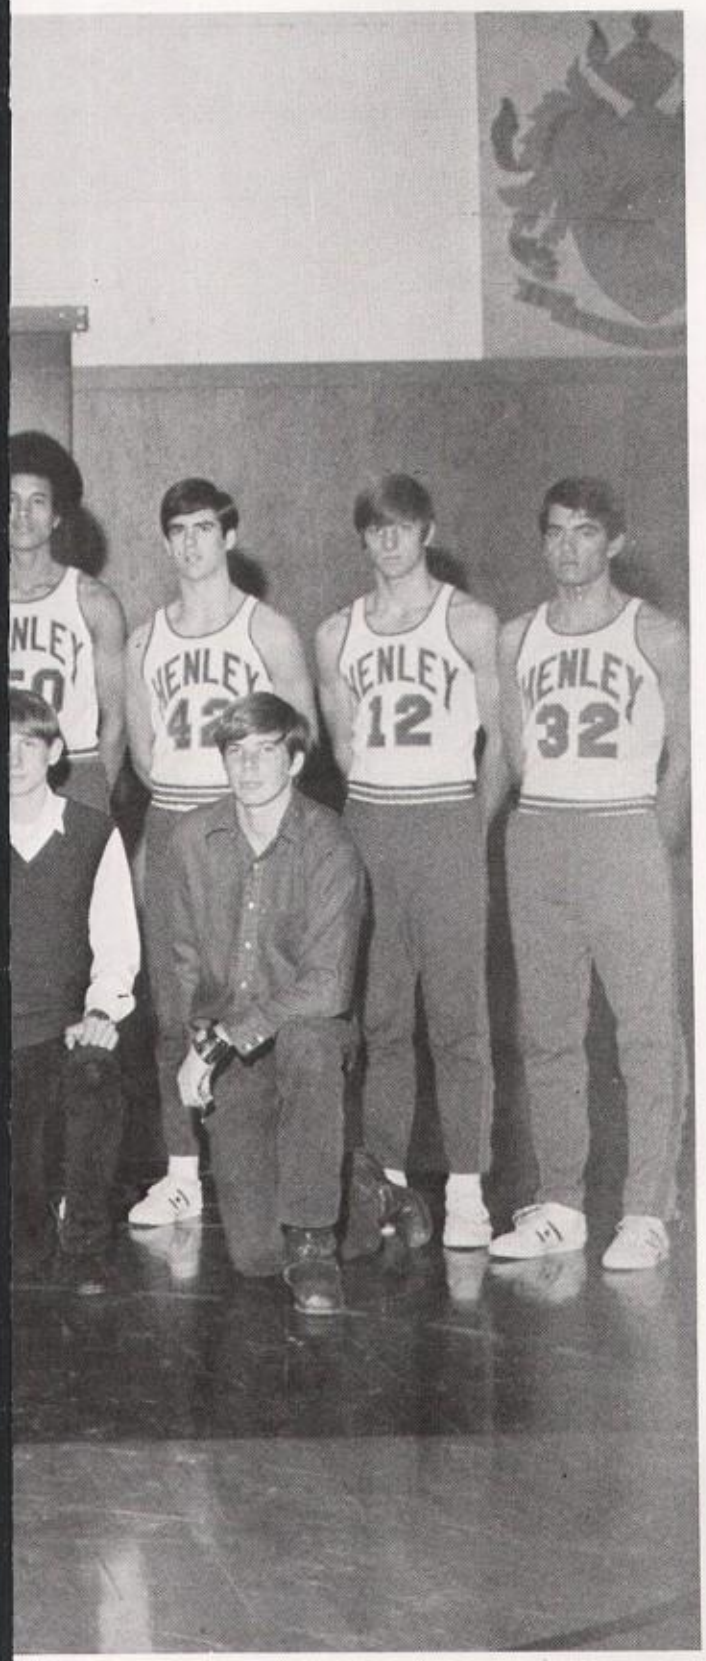
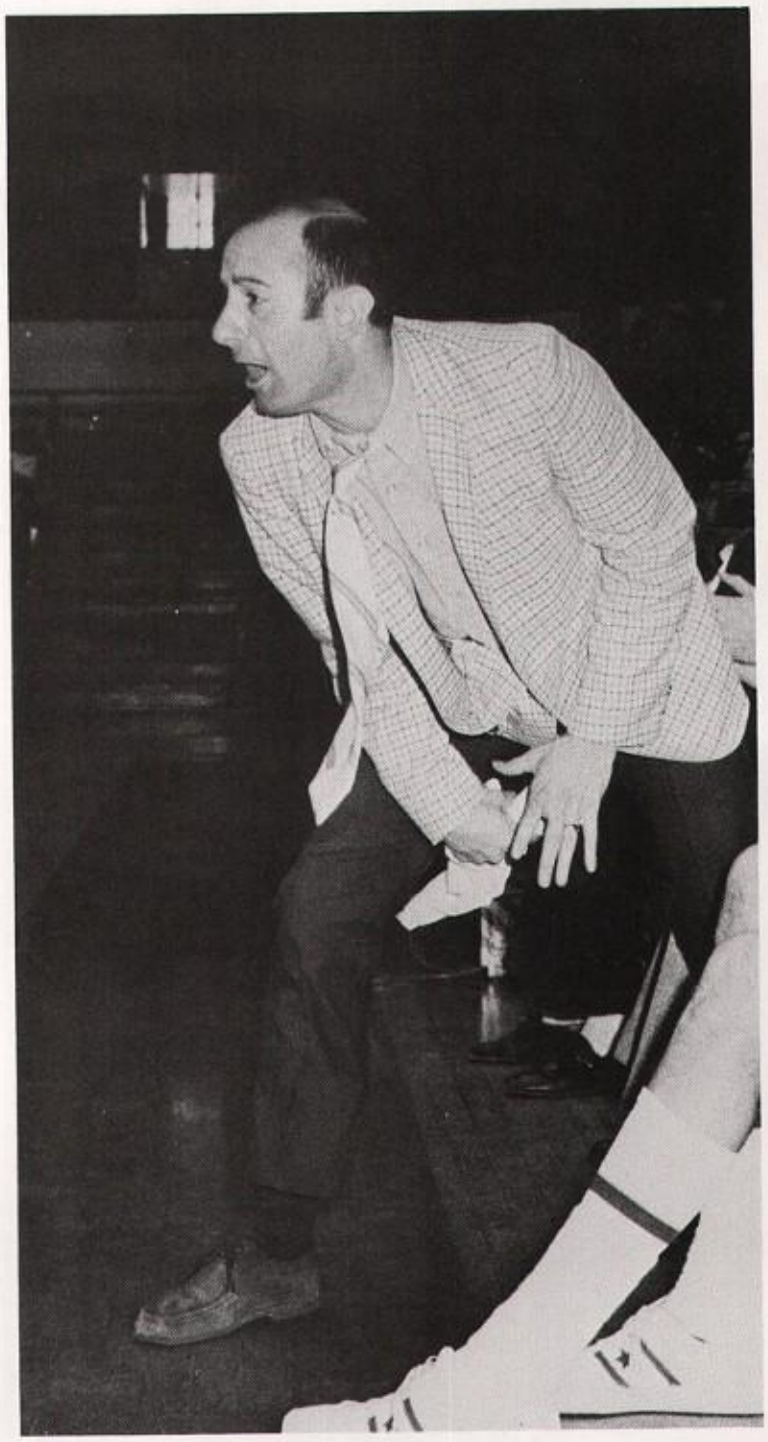
Conference

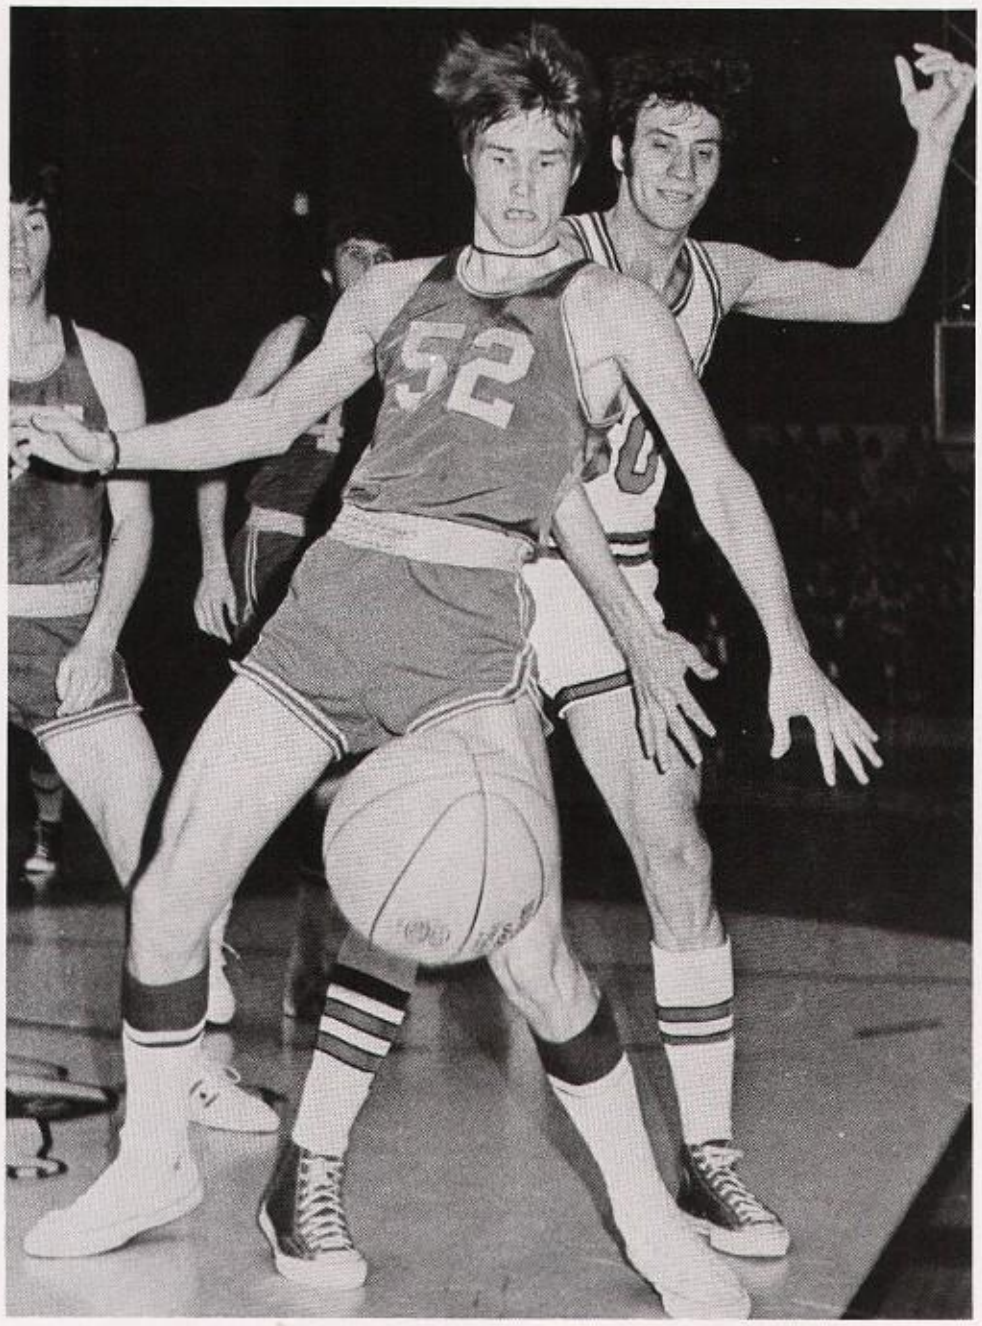


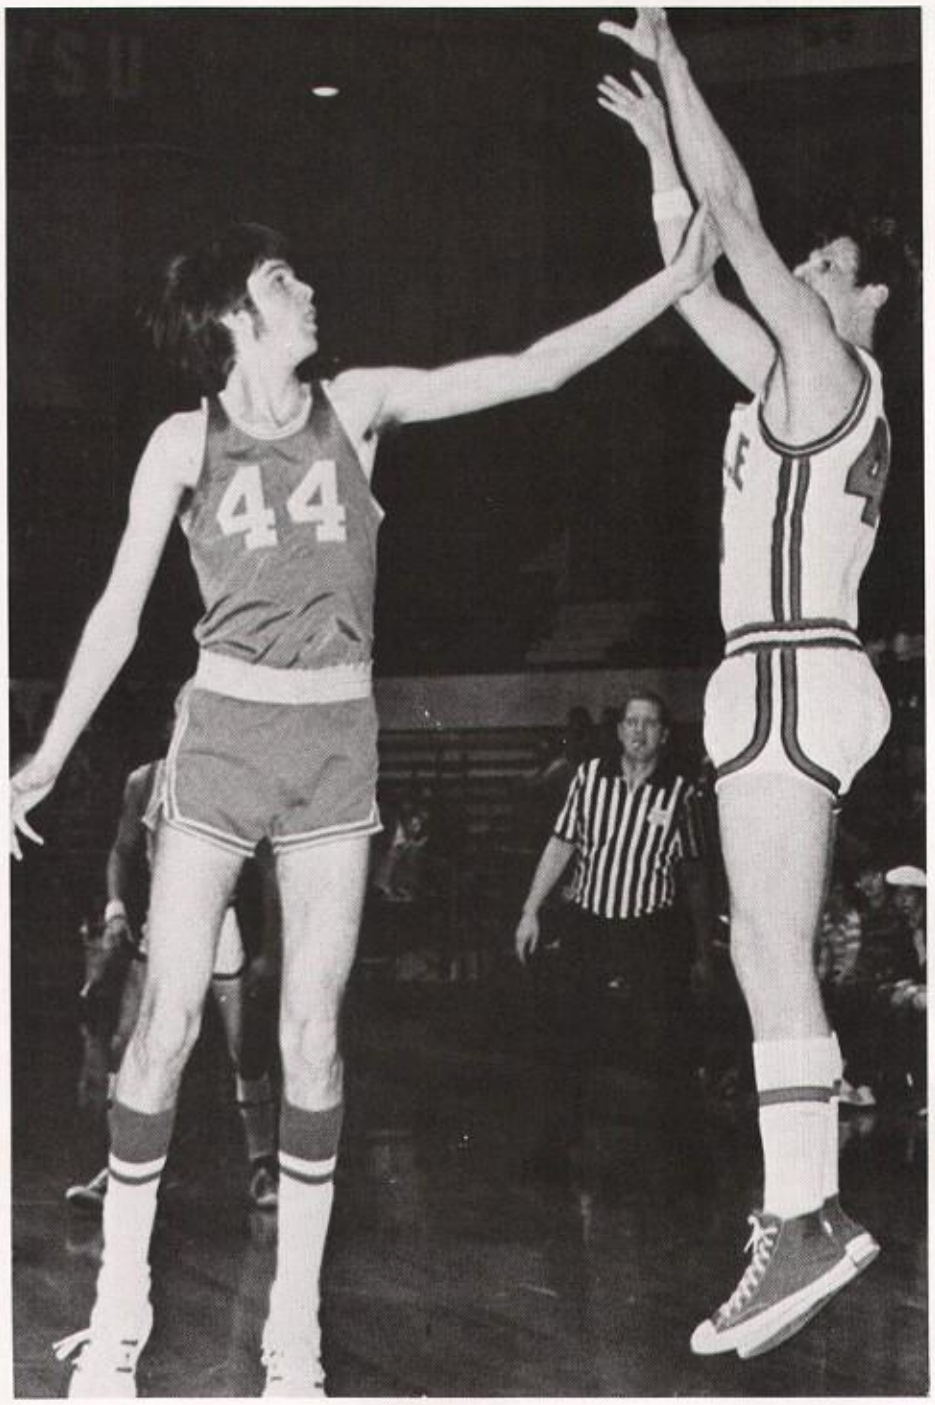
Coach Andretta is behind the team all the way. At state tournament, he gave the team lots of encouragement.

For the second consecutive year the Henley Hornets were number one in the Skyline Conference. Coach Andretta, assistant coach last year, took over head coaching duties and took the team to state. He was assisted by Coach Riggs.



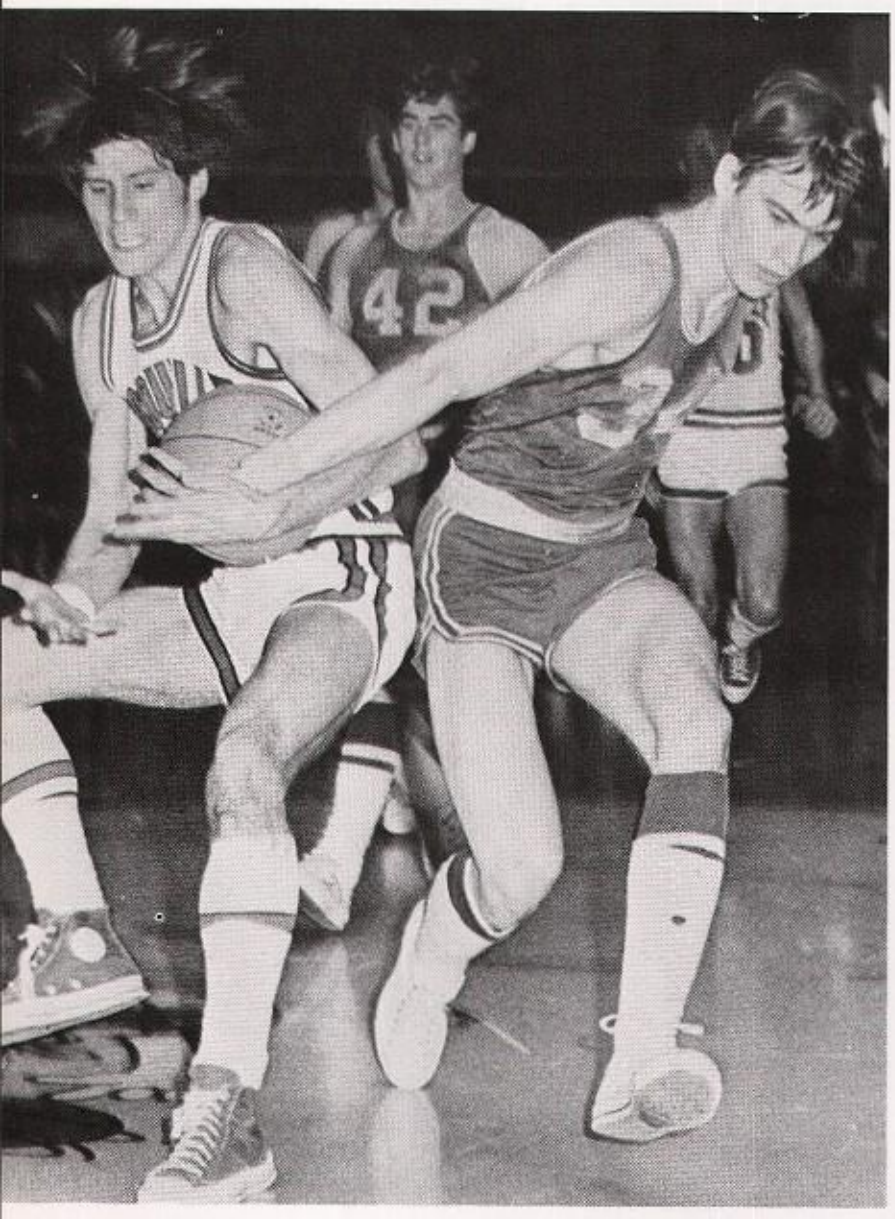
Excitement reigned as the Hornets reached the state tournament for the second consecutive year. At the end of the first game the excitement had died down a little as the team lost to Cascade. The Hornets came back to defeat both Coquille and Siuslaw and move into the consolation championship game. After a heartbreaker, Henley finished eighth, losing to Gladstone, the team that had been rated number one.

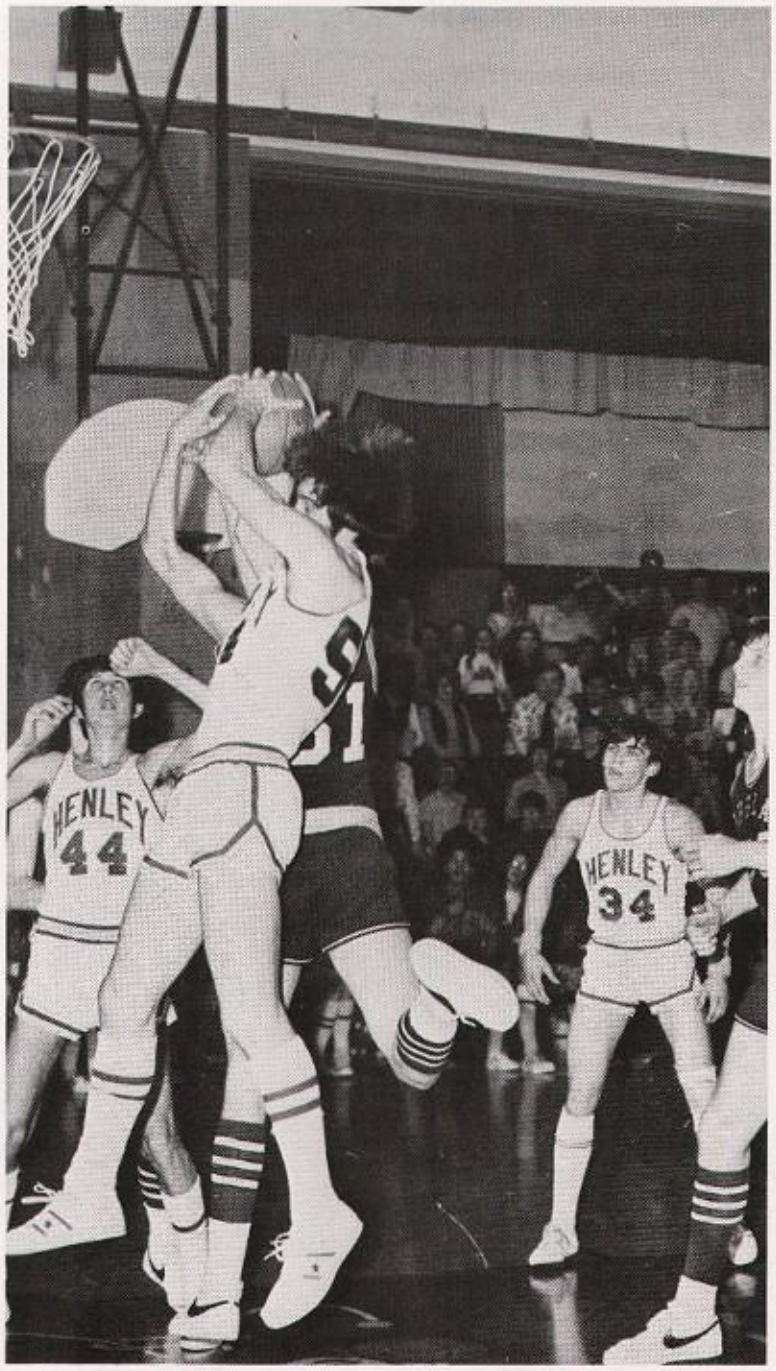


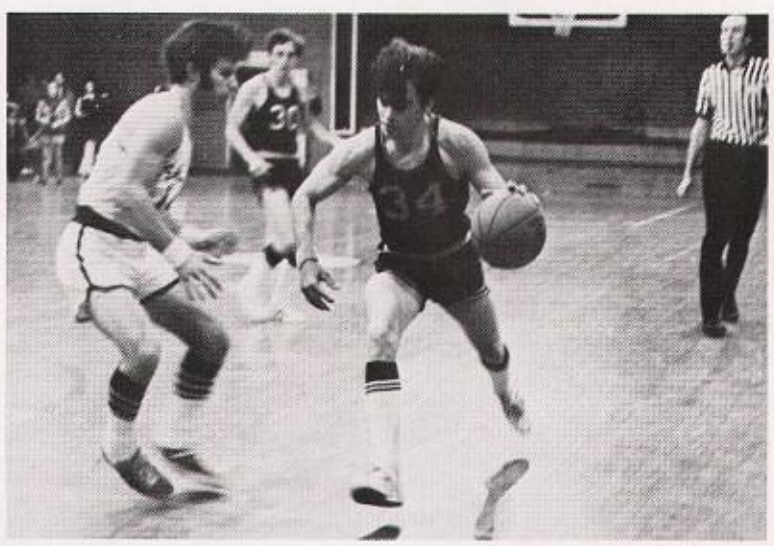


Two juniors seeing starting action were Bill Poch and Tom Gilleland.

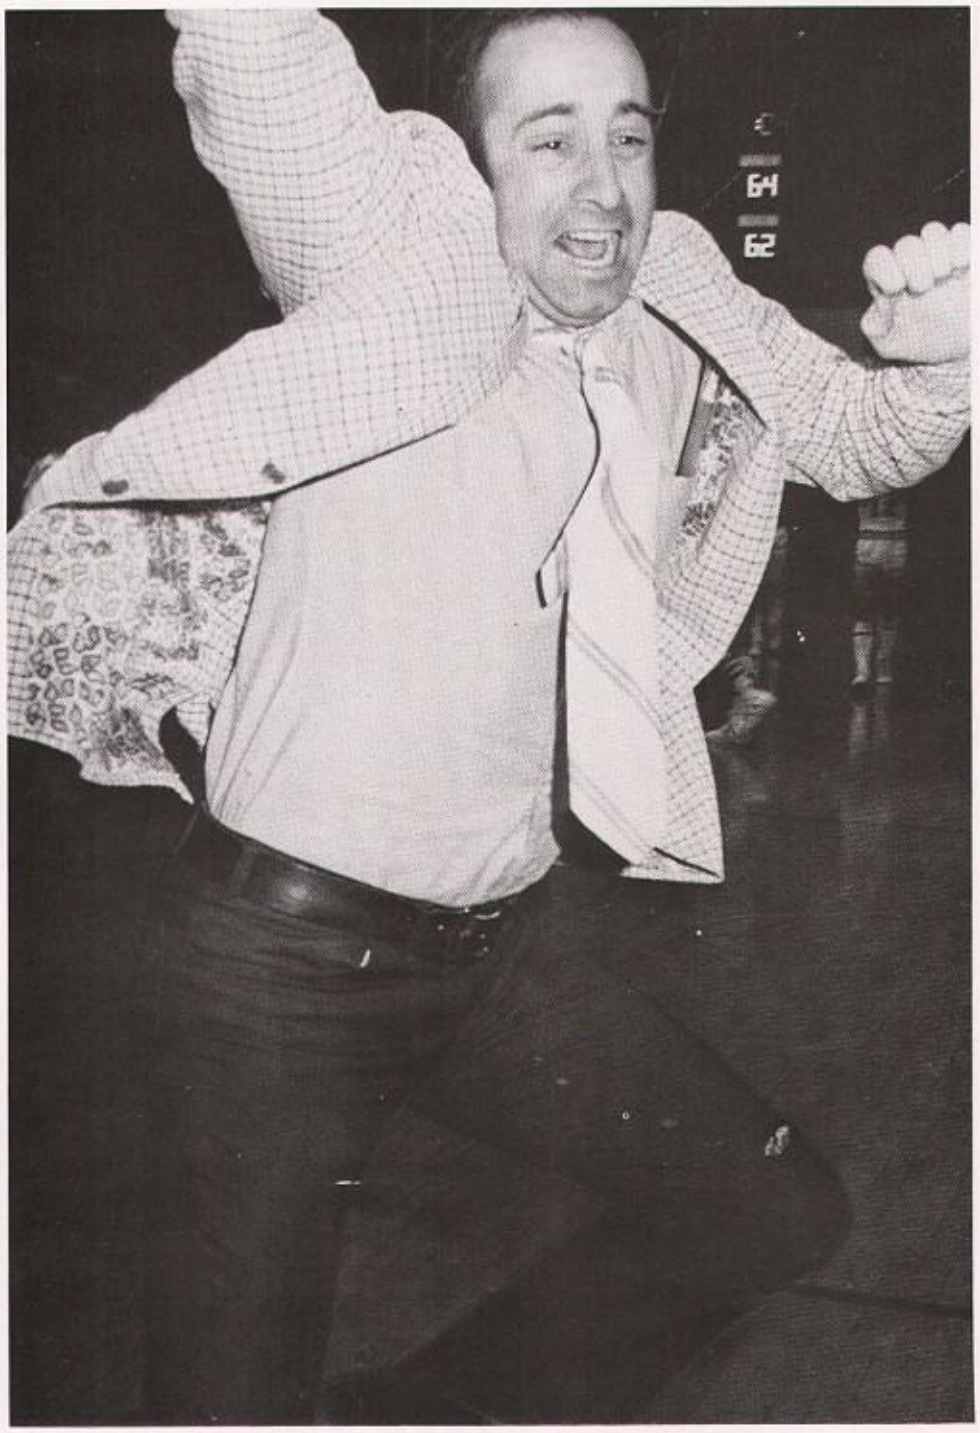
Seniors Star

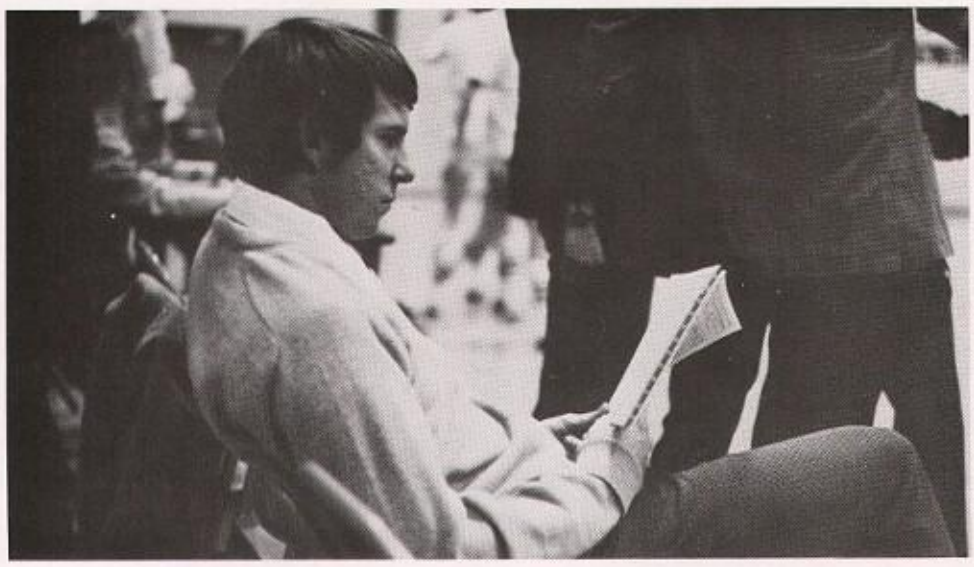






Senior members on this year's basketball team are Tom Noble, Scott Urban, Grant Pine, Jay McDonald, and Ernie Tacchini. These boys will be missed next year.





The two men behind the great 1972-73 basketball team this year were Coach Andretta and Coach Riggs. In case you can't tell, Henley has the 64. Henley may be as well remembered around the state for their coaches as anything else.

Young Hornets Prove Capable

Small Turnout Hurts Team

The wrestling team needs more wrestlers. Wrestling is both an individual sport and a team sport. The boys that are out for this sport do real well but it is discouraging to always be on a losing team because of the large number of forfeits. Come on boys, lets have a full team next year.

Right: Darrell Chavez and Jon Zbinden receive a little motherly advice. Above: Dick Witt retires this year after many years of driving the bus for Henley teams. He has been a number one fan and will be missed. Top right: Mike Meeker leaves the mat after being declared the winner.

Practice is important in any sport but especially in track and field.

Members of the 880 relay team are Ann Dingler, Linda Bauer, Sue Quinowski, Jackie Hume, Cindy Divine and alternates Chris Greene, Rhonda Riach, and Barbara Depuy.

Track Stars Perform

There was a good turnout this year for the girls' track team. Joy Williams placed 6th in shotput at state. The team is young with most of the girls being freshmen or sophomores so it looks good for next year.

Rally Squad Travels

Getting to go to state basketball tournament two years in a row is something that doesn't happen to too many rally squads. The faithful five cheered the team on to many a victory and kept cheering through the tournament. The other big trip taken by the group was to Squaw Valley last summer. Jerri Wedam served as Rally Queen.

Young Rallies Add To Henley Spirit

The four J.V. cheerleaders and the three freshman rally girls cheered their teams on to many a victory. They never gave up hope and the boys and coaches could be sure that the crowd was behind them.

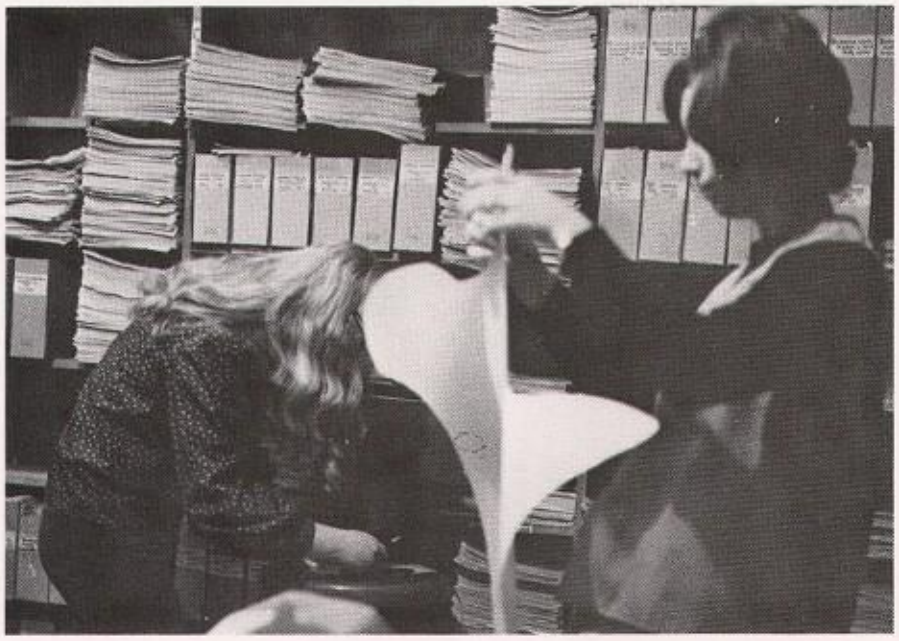
Library Club Displays Books



One of the yearly functions of the Library Club is the sponsoring of a Halloween Party for the faculty. At this time new books are put on display and the teachers have a chance to browse.

Top: Ginger and Carla make Halloween decorations. Middle: Library Club officers remind us that the library is a place to be quiet. They are Ginger Harnsberger, vice president; Georgianne Kohler, president; Irene Murphy, secretary; and Carla Franklin, treasurer. Bottom: The rest of the staff seems to be enjoying the party, Mr. Kerr.

Art Club Helps Drama

Members of the Art Club spent many hours working on flats for the Drama Club production of SNOW WHITE AND THE SEVEN DWARFS. Paintings of the castle, the forest, and the home of the seven dwarfs were done on sheets with special dyes. In the spring the art department was featured in an all school achievement night.

Lettermen Need Coaches

All coaches help advise the Lettermen's club and figure out the number of points needed by each player in each sport to qualify for the club. The club annually plans homecoming and paints the "H" on the hill.

Majorettes Receive Credit

The majorettes are elected each spring to serve for the following year. This way they are able to take band and receive a credit. Most of the Henley majorettes have had years of experience with the Henley Honey Bees. Besides working and marching with the band, these girls entertain at pep assemblies and games.

Top: Serving Henley High School as majorettes this year were Robin Wells, Karlene Dearing, Candy Terry, and Susie Mathes.
Above: The majorettes work very closely with the band.

Skiers Travel for Fun

The one club in school that can get its members up early on Saturday morning is The Ski Club. Bus trips are taken by this club to such places as Ashland and Bend. If you see students praying for snow, you can be sure they are a member of Ski Club.

Top: Ski Club officers do a snow dance hoping for powder this weekend. They are Janet Williams, Gloria Sukraw, and Jon Christianson.

Girls' League Helps Salvation Army

Probably the most active and definitely the largest club on campus was the Girls' League. The girls in this organization honored each athletic team with some kind of a feed. They helped the Salvation Army at Christmas time with a very successful canned food drive. The reg. room winning this contest was Mr. Gorsenger's. That reg. room was given a party. The club raised money by having baked food sales for each holiday. Their largest event was the style show held just before Christmas. Proceeds from this show went to the Drama Club to help buy a spotlight.

Girls' League is the largest club in school. The members include, front row: Debbie Powell, Stephanie Berg, Keven Dehlinger, Sandy Vanderhoff, Sherry McAuliffe, Robin Warcken, Karen Rummery, Gayle Chambers, Karla Kuist, and Sherry Thompson. 2nd row: Bonnie Woodard, Cheryl Daniel, Cheryl Blofsky, Debbie Antle, Diane Sandusky, Shelia Brennan, Judy Andert, Denise Hill, Valerie Freirich, Gail Hildreth, Dani Stevenson, and Ann Rummery. 3rd row: Teresa Marchart, Judy Sayles, Sue Quinowski, Pam Reddington, Sherri Bryan, Candy Terry, Robin Wells, Sue Mathes, Jackie Hume, Danette Johnson, Debbie Rose, and Julie Jarrett. 4th row: Cathy Calmes, Gayle Phillips, Lisa Vanderhoff, Michele Keely, Sharon Bushnell, Shelley Rushing, Carolyn Ross, Beth Poch, Jeanette Andert, Karlene Dearing, and Pam Bolton. 5th row: Pam Hasskamp, Chris Greene, Linda Rajnus, Helena DeHoop, Regina Short, Kristi Gow, Lulu Rose, Tara Travis, Denise Claunch, Sharlene Leidholdt, and Julie Mecham. 6th row: Dawn Hollinger, Helen Noonan, Kelly Roberts, Kathy Francisco, Sheryl Brown, Ann Dingler, Ann Givan, Maria Lynn, Carolyn Masten, and Linda Bauer.

Each month of the school year Girls' League honors its members by naming a Girl of the Month. The girl is honored for her contribution to the club and to the school. Just before graduation a senior is named Girl of the Year. This year Sherry McAuliffe and Robin Warcken share this honor.

Clubs Meet Special Interests

Several organizations at Henley cater to special interests. Two of these groups are Chess Club and Science Club. Chess Club members meet for the pleasure of playing the game and moving up the chess ladder. Science Club members choose a project and work with that project throughout the year.

Honor Society Gives Scholarships

In order to be a member of The National Honor Society, a student must be a junior or senior, have a G. P. A. of 3.5, be a member of two clubs or an officer in one club, and be a good citizen. With the goals of scholarship and service in mind, these members sell cakes at all home basketball games to earn money for scholarships for the senior members.

Right: Officers for the Honor Society were Lynn Sine, Gloria Sukraw, Jim Gansberg, Cindy Thomas, and Sandy Vanderhoff.

Foreign Language Club Revived

The Foreign Language Club had a real revival this year and became very active. A variety of activities filled the year. Horseback riding, picnics, making signs for games, trips, and plays were just a few of these activities. The overall goal of this club was to learn more about the countries of France and Spain.

Communication is important to people studying a foreign language. Communicating in French and Spanish are the following: Front row: Warren Poppe, Mark England, Mike Whitney, John Candida, Larry Daniels, Barbara King, Tara Travis, Jeanette Andert, Judy Agrons, JoAnn Snyder, Irene Murphy, Ann Givan, Sue Quinowski, and Maria Lynn. Back row: Kim Thompson, DeAnn Hoffman, Nancy Dedert, Randy Jones, Cheryl Kirkpatrick, Valerie Freirich, Gail Hildreth, Linda Bauer, Mark Smirnov, Julie Mecham, Kathy Francisco, Kelli Roberts, Helen Noonan, and Mr. Gorsenger.

Those in charge of the Foreign Language Club were Sharlene Leidholdt, Ann Masten, Nancy Brown, Carolyn Masten, Maurice Byrd, and Mr. Gorsenger.

Goldilocks and the Three Bears in Spanish? Well, why not? Taking the lead rols were Ann Masten as Goldilocks, Dean Cameron as Papa Bear, Tara Travis as Mama Bear, and Karl Anderson as Baby Bear.

Photographers Needed

Even though a class is offered for annual production, much work must be done after school is out. As always, more photographers were needed so some sections of the yearbook are a little sketchy. This year several underclass students worked on the book so there will be some experience for next year.

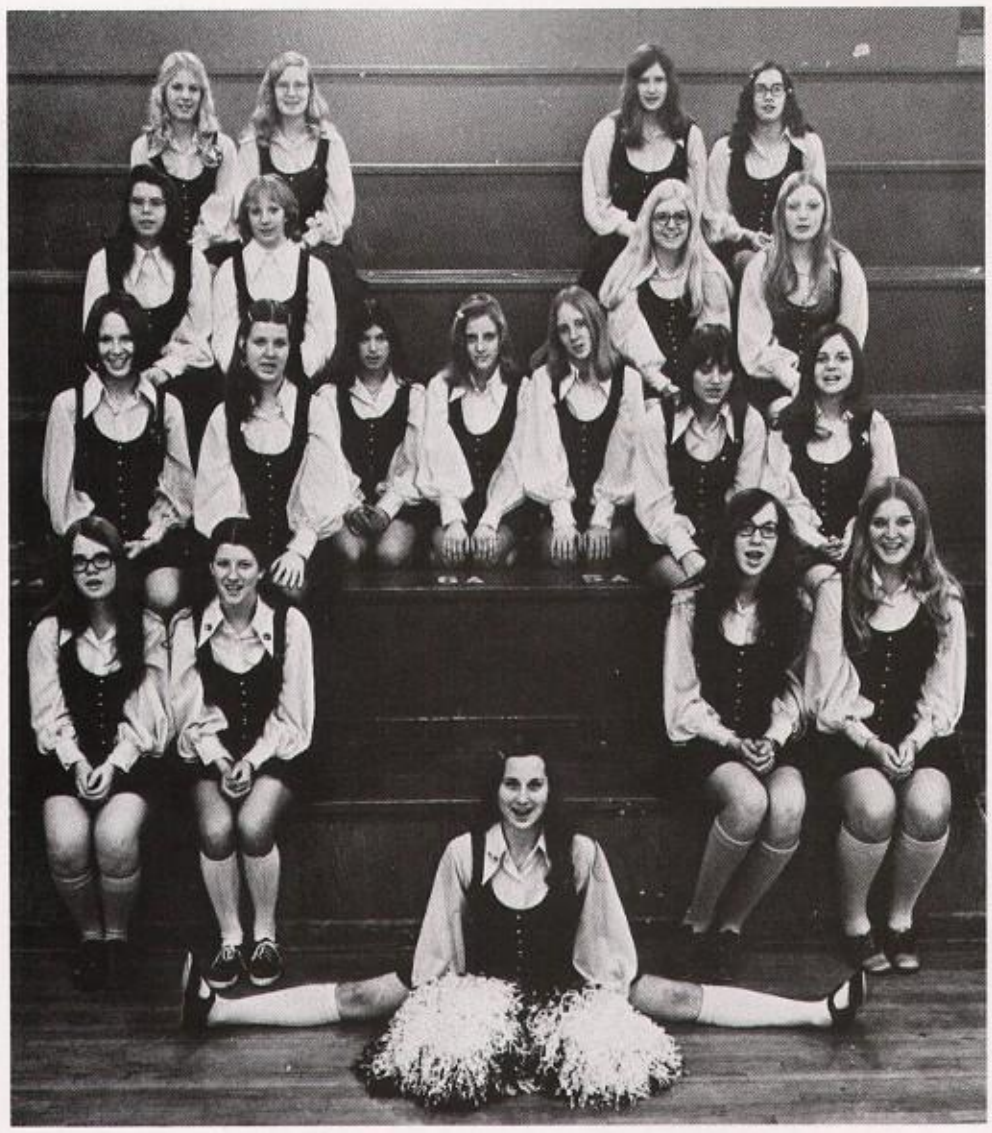
Speech Club Competes

Members of the speech club work all fall preparing for the District Speech Meet. Part of this preparation includes entering the OTI Invitational and competing in the County Speech Festival. This year the club was invited to compete in the SOC Invitational but were unable to attend due to prior commitments.

Top: Members of the Henley Speech Club are Dale Andert, Cary Snyder, Ann Dingler, Bill Cogley, Nanette Shaver, Dave Hiatt, Debbie Sabo, Rick Romtvedt, Richard Concannon, and Larry Sandwick. Mr. Altenberg is the club's advisor. Bottom: Dave Hiatt, Debbie Sabo, and Bill Cogley go to state tournament. Bill tied for 6th place in the humorous category.

Students Study International Relations

I.R.L., International Relations League, members find the library to be their second home. Students taking this course are Larry Sandwick, Cindy Thomas, Gloria Sukraw, Tom Noble, Jeri Wedam, Mark Smirnov, Keven Dehlinger, and Mike Meeker. Officers for this organization are Cindy Thomas and Keven Dehlinger.



Forming the "H" for Henley are the girls in the Pep Club. From back to front, they are Cindy Baker, Caroline Emmert, Wendy Collman, Dakota Rushing, Cheryl Kirkpatrick, Denise LaComb, Vicki Biggs, Ginger Harnsberger, Gail Hildreth, Debbie Balin, Patty Frost, Sharlene Leidholdt, Julie Mecham, Gwen Womack, Lynn Sine, Janese Sharp, Vickie Hampton, Ruth Brandt, Nancy Mack, and Shelley Rushing.

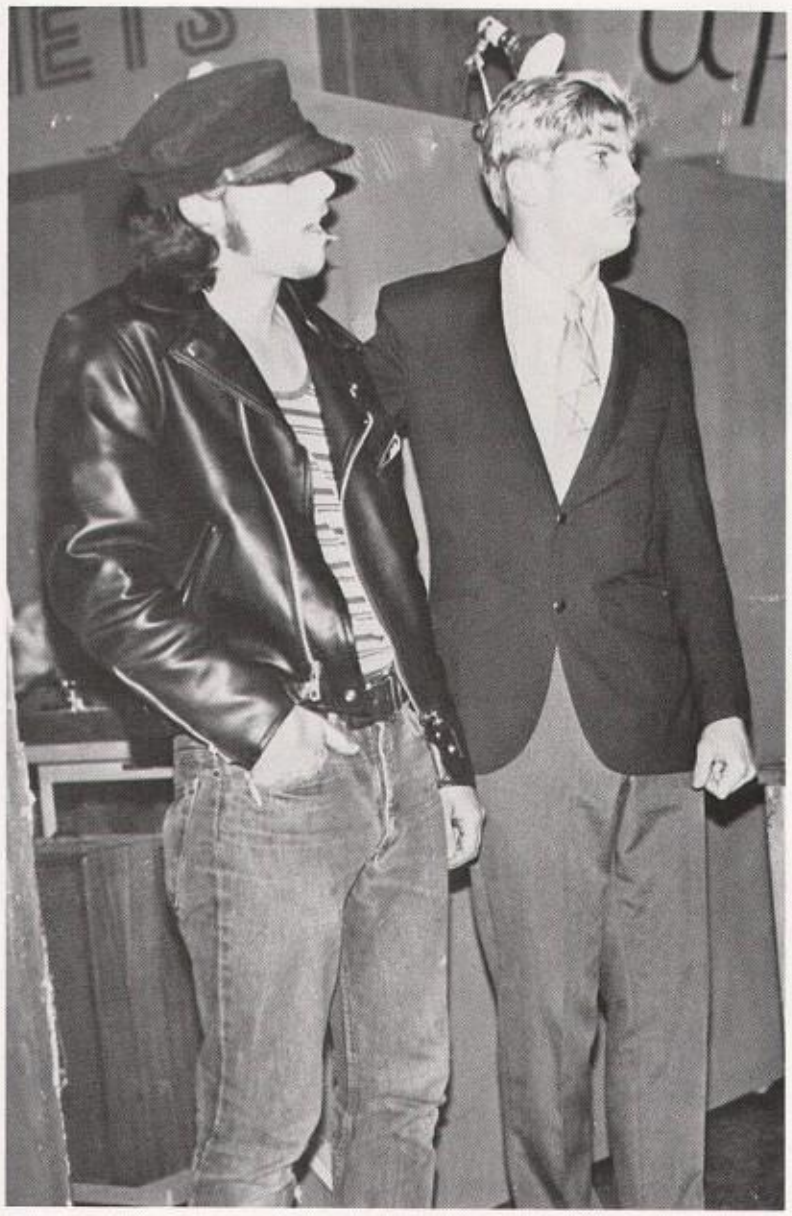
They are Nancy Mack, second vice-president; Lynn Sine, president; Gail Hildreth, treasurer; Ruth Brandt, drill leader; Janese Sharp, first vice-president; Debbie Balin, secretary; and Vickie Hampton, publicity manager.

Pep Club Carry New Flags

The Pep Club sponsored the Sweethearts' Ball and the Mr. and Miss Rebound contest again this year. This was the highlight of the year for this club but many activities preceded it. Included were the buying of the mums at Homecoming, cheering at all home games, sponsoring pep and rooter buses to away games, going on one "overnighter", and selling pop and candy at the basketball games.

The Pep Club carries the new league flags in the Potato Festival parade.

Sitting are Ann Dingler, Debbie Ross, Jon Christianson, Gayle Chambers, Bill Cogley, Keith Douglas, and Barbara King.



Dramatists Do Up the Down Staircase

The two major events for this year's Drama Club were the putting on of two plays. The fall production was a children's play, SNOW WHITE AND THE SEVEN DWARFS. Assisting the club with this production was the Art Club. In the spring the play UP THE DOWN STAIRCASE was produced. Other activities included going to Ashland to see the plays OTHELLO and THE IMPORTANCE OF BEING EARNEST. Earlier they had worked with a group of actors from Ashland. A puppet workshop was held and the club them took their puppet shows to visit the grade schools.

Above: Jon Christianson and Debbie Larson portray two of the teachers in the spring play. Top: The principal, Lee Thomas, catches Joe, Bill Cogley going UP THE DOWN STAIRCASE.

Dance Team Places Third at State

The Dance Team marches in the Merrill Parade.

The Henley Dance Team entered state competition for the fourth time this year and returned home with third place honors. Earlier in the year they had taken first in the Merrill Potato Festival parade and a first in the Lewis and Clark clinic.

Teachers and Students Change Places

The student council sponsored student and teacher exchange day in March. At that time students prepared the lessons and the teachers became part of the class. The student teachers were chosen by the class and had to present lesson plans to the teacher in advance. The student body officers filled in for the office and library staff. The day proved to be fun for both students and teachers.

Small Ensemble Sings for Community

Members of the senior small ensemble work during I and I's to prepare for civic entertainment. Along with their public performances they work with the choir for school assemblies and concerts. The choir also sings for graduation.

P.P.A. Works With School

Periodically throughout the year students are honored by the P.P.A. for contribution to the school. A trophy is given to the school and these students names are placed on this trophy. The P.P.A. also gives scholarships to two students at graduation. One is to a student entering the teaching field and the other to a student going to O.T.I.

Class of '73 Wins Homecoming Competition

The class of '73 generated much school spirit when they became the first class to have a freshman rally squad. They tied for first place in the homecoming float competition and won the spirit jug several times. They participated in many new activities and were leaders in sports.

The sophomore year brought the task of selling magazines to earn money for the prom. Ann Adair was high salesman. Class rings were selected early in the year. With the help of the J.V. rally squad, they won the spirit stick several times and placed second in the homecoming parade.

The prom, the major project faced as juniors, was a huge success. "Through the Looking Glass" was the theme and the freshman servers dressed in various costumes from ALICE IN WONDERLAND. The prom was held at the Elks' Lodge. This year the juniors received first place for their homecoming float. When spring came they all boarded busses for a field trip to the Lava Beds.

Now the class of '73 are seniors. They attended many senior activities and made many lasting memories. They placed first in the float competition and their basketball team went to state. This was a most unforgettable year with the senior banquet and graduation bring it all to a close. Hopefully prepared for what awaits them after they leave Henley, they are looking forward to a new way of life and a promising future which begins "If not now...when?"

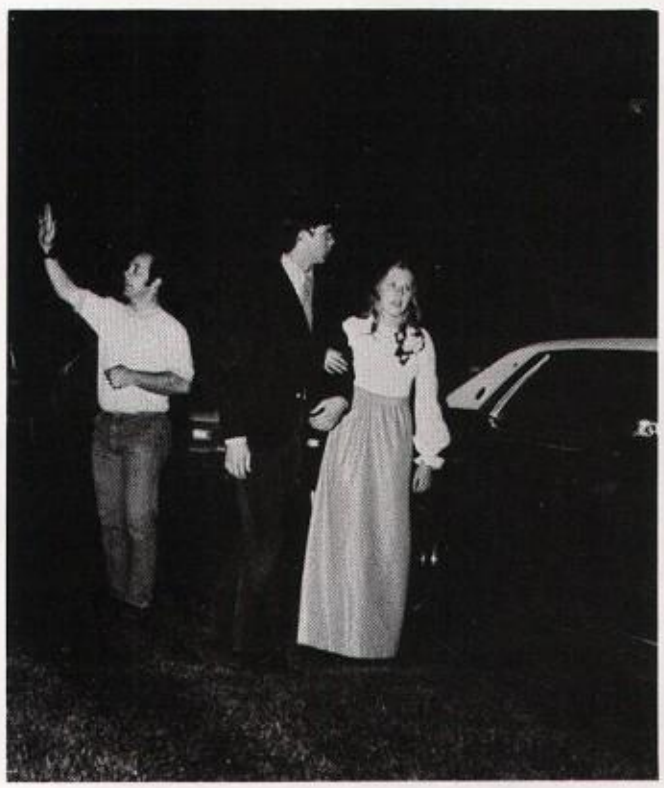
Becky and Greg discover that being a senior isn't all play.

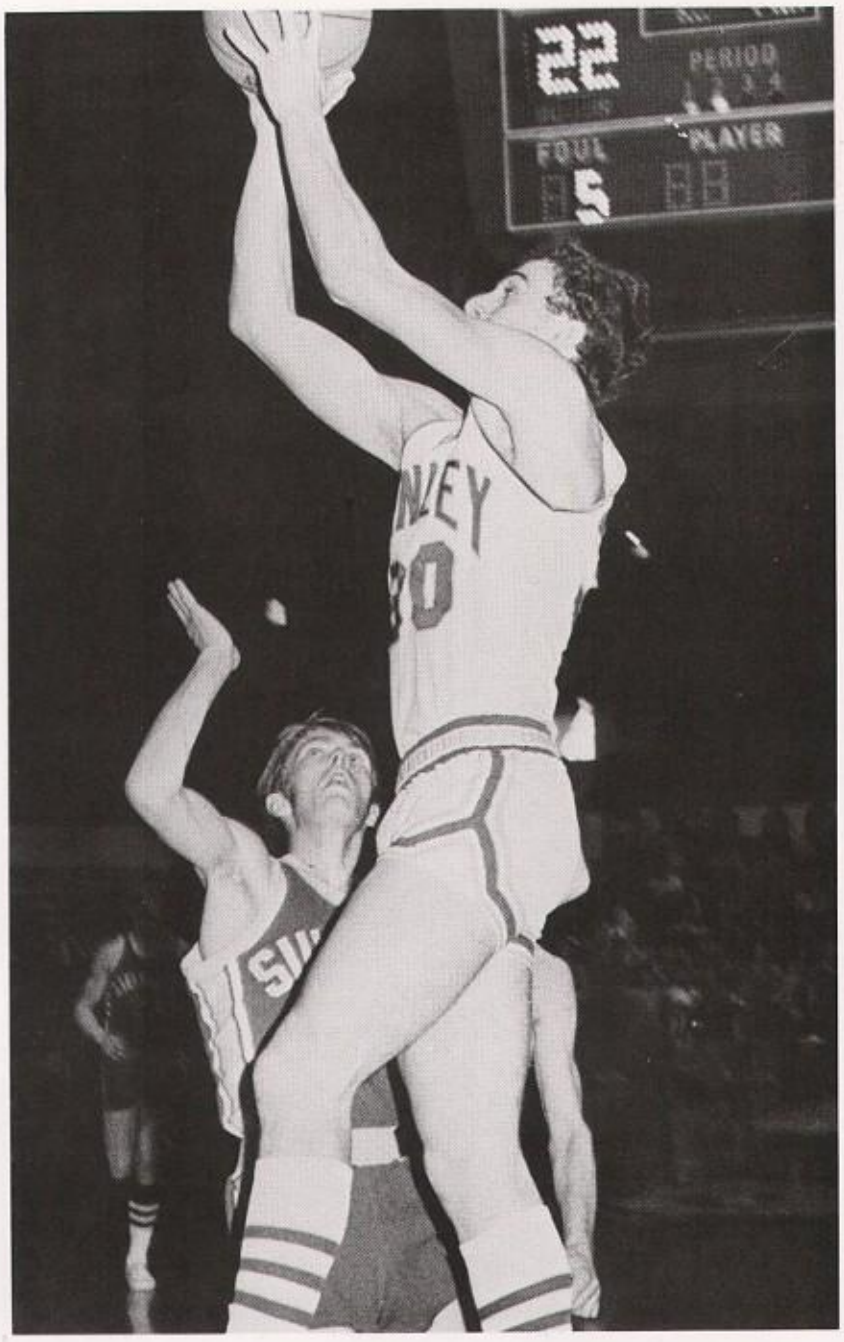
What does it mean to be a senior? It is a great feeling but being a senior means more than just having "seniorities". It also means a great responsibility. Here are just some of the things "great" about being the tops.



Top: Being a senior means being crowned queen of the prom and homecoming. Or at least being eligible. Above: Only seniors can try to become Klamath County's Junior Miss. Nancy Brown came in second.

Only one girl in the state gets the honor of being Girls' State Governor. This honor went to senior Robin Warcken.

Below: Being a senior means going to more formal dances than ever before. Right: For senior Ernie Tacchini, it means going to state basketball tournament two years in a row and being named Senior Athlete by his coaches.



Being a senior means that next year you will have to pay to see the homecoming game.

Happily, being a senior means that next year you won't have to ride the school bus.

Below: Because there are fewer requirements, seniors can take more "fun" classes, like shop. Below right: Many seniors enjoy working in the community with CSP.

Class of '73 Graduates

Each year graduation brings mixed feelings. To some it is a time of relief, to many it is a very happy time but to others it brings a feeling of sadness or worry. The next few pages feature the graduation of the class of 1973. This is the last class to graduate from the old building.

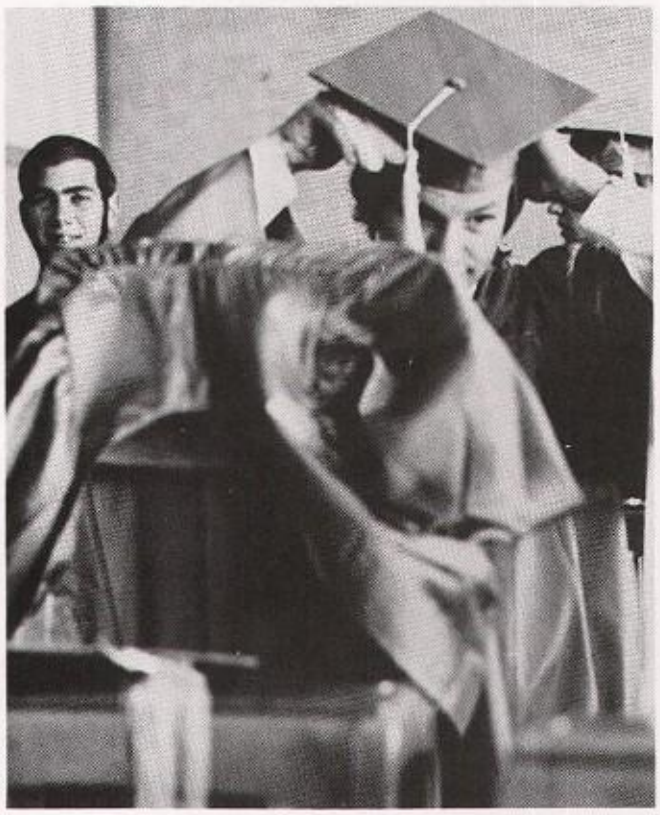
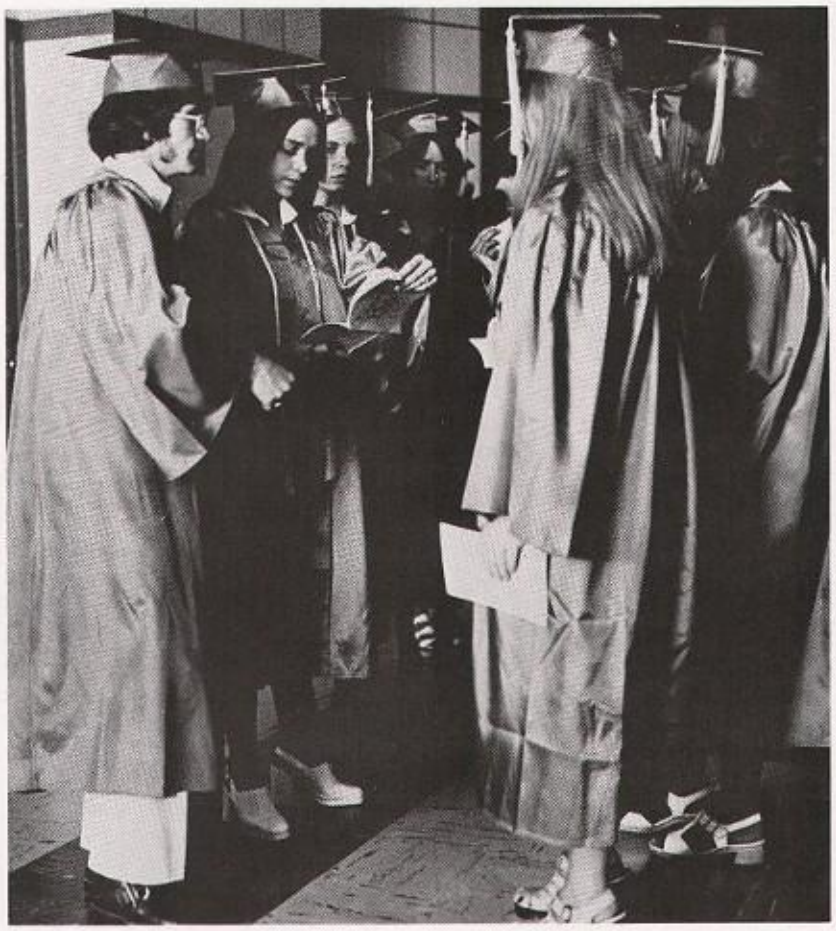
Right: Mrs. Johns admires Linda's new necklace.



Be sure that hat is pinned on tight, Steve.



The top ten get lined up to lead their classmates into the gym.

Top left: Royce Lasley decides the gate is about to open on his future and he will no longer have the security of high school. Top right: The stage is set and graduation 1973 style is about to begin. Bottom: The class enters the gym doors as students for the last time.

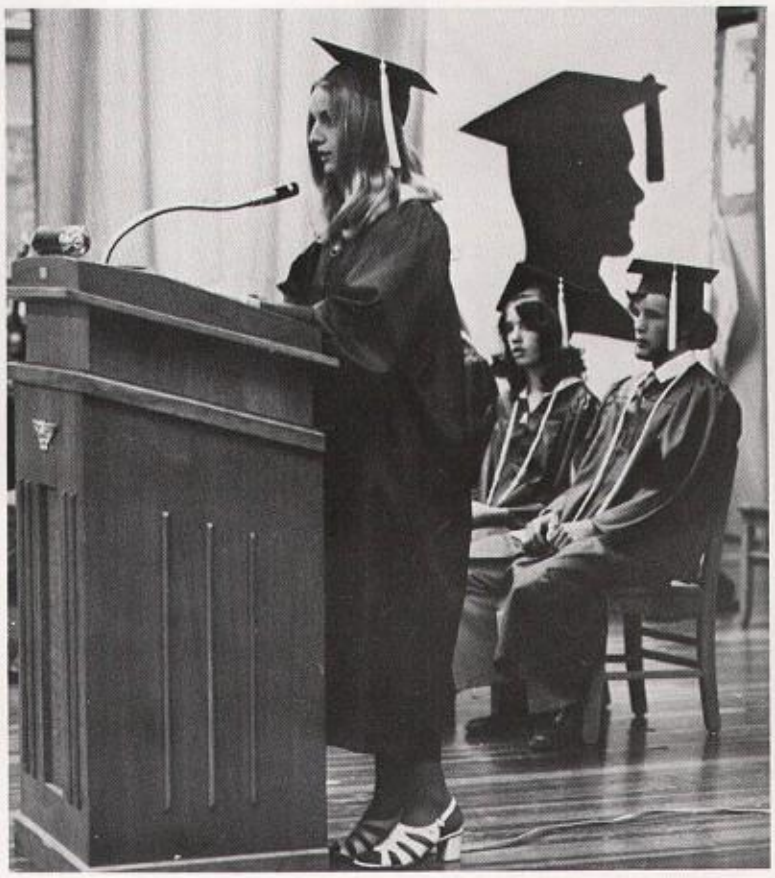
Two of the seniors chosen to give commencement speeches were Jim Gansberg and Kelly Goodell. Bottom: The senior choir members perform.



The faculty and administration always play an important part in graduation, Senior class advisors, Mr. Hauck, Mr. Graham, and Miss Mitchell, hand out awards and scholarships. Mr. Lane, principal, hands out the most coveted award of all. He is shown here presenting that award, the diploma, to Ginger Harnsberger.

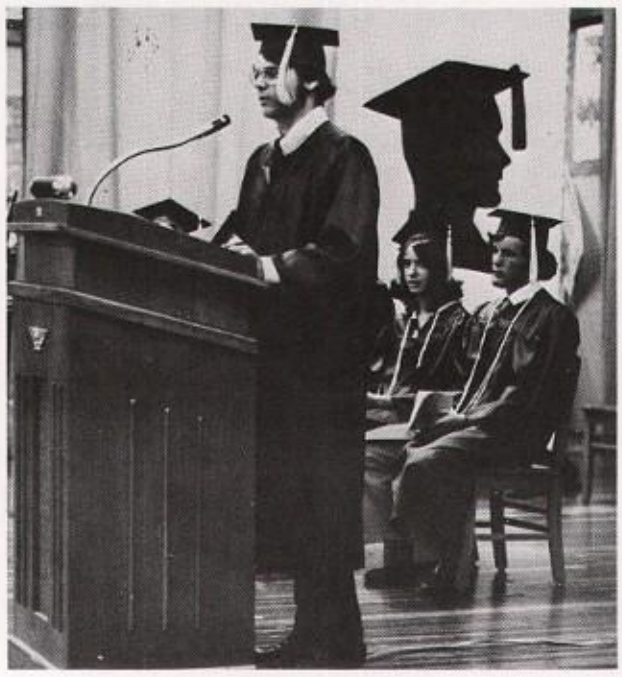
Faculty Honor Students

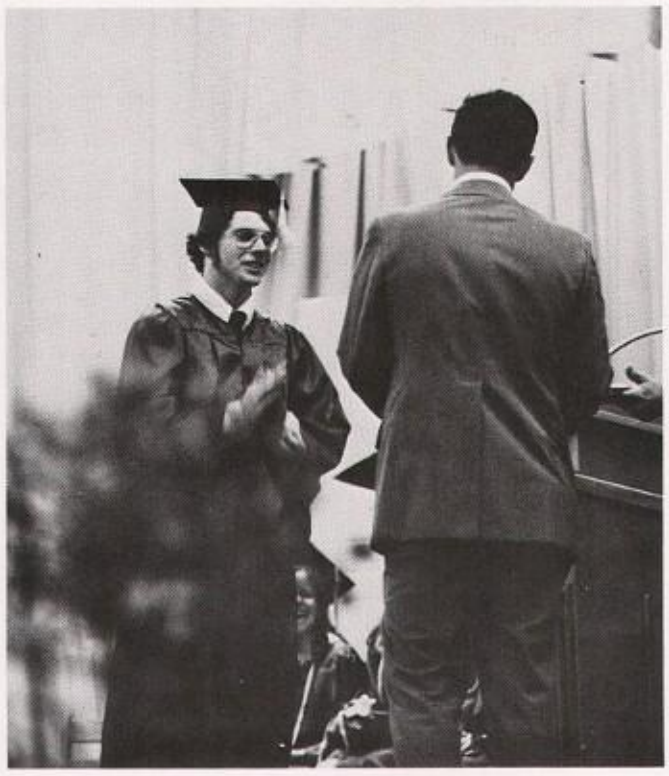
The speeches and the delivery of the diplomas are just two of the activities that take place on stage graduation afternoon. Many scholarships are given and several faculty awards are announced at that time. These awards are the citizenship awards for a boy and a girl, the senior athlete award, and the music award. Winners of these awards this year were Lynn Sine and Tom Noble, citizenship; Ernie Tacchini, senior athlete; and Megan Creswell, music.

A large crowd attended graduation.

Graduation is a time for relatives and friends to wish you luck, take your picture, and give you gifts. The full meaning of this is now understood by Don Polmateer, top; Ken Swanson, left; and Janet Williams, right.

To each graduate the experience of graduation will bring a different memory. Among these memories will be the four years it took to get this far, the teachers--some good, some bad--, the many friends, the worry about grades, the senior year and the feeling of being the best, the activities that brought this year to a close, the butterflies as the band started playing on June 3rd, and the feeling of pride when your name was called and Mr. Lane handed you a diploma. These were some of the thoughts going through the mind of Bill Cogley as he donned his robe, made his graduation speech, and begged Mr. Lane to give him a diploma.





THE END OF AN ERA. The last class to graduate from the old high school leave traces of "The Signs of '73".
